Compassionate Classrooms: Understanding the Continuum of Disabilities and Effective Educational Interventions

Nicholas D. Young,Angela C. Fain,Teresa Allissa Citro,2019-08-02 Throughout the chapters of this book the reader will be introduced to the thirteen disability categories included in IDEA specific learning disabilities emotional behavioral disorders autism other health impaired intellectually disabled multiple disabilities speech or language impairments traumatic brain injury hearing impairment deaf blind deafness visual impairment and orthopedic impairment using the legally established definitions Lengthy descriptions of best practices modifications and accommodations follow offering a complete picture of each disability and how educators and parents collaboratively can assist the struggling student To set the stage the book begins with chapters that discuss special education in general response to intervention as an intermediary step in the academic continuum of support and the individualized education plan process Subsequent chapters examine each of the thirteen aforementioned IDEA disability categories which have not been commonly incorporated into one comprehensive resource however for the sake of brevity some disability categories have been combined when doing so did not impact practice implications Emphasis is placed on effective classroom strategies and interventions associated with each disability category with the intent of providing practitioners and those who support them with the information and tools necessary to support students with identified educational needs To the extent possible the primary authors sought to ensure this resource was practical and user friendly for educators who work directly with students with the range of recognized disabilities This book demystifies the special education process and disability categories as well as offers educators and their families the tools to help our students who have one or more disabilities find life long success Ensuring the best for our students with disabilities requires that we first acknowledge and support the hard work and deep commitment of those professionals and parents guardians who devote their lives to teaching reaching mentoring and advocating for those most vulnerable in our classrooms

Woodcock-Johnson Psycho-educational Battery-revised Nancy Mather,Lynne Jaffe,1992 This bestselling book is the ultimate resource for users of the WJ R The first section is comprised of a variety of recommendations for cognitive academic behavioral and social interventions The second section is intended to help translate the identified areas of need into behavioral objectives for planning instruction and developing the individual educational plan The third section presents case studies that exemplify the use of the WJ R in educational and clinical settings with clients from preschool to age 86 The fourth section the appendix contains short summaries of interventions and remedial techniques that were referred to in the recommendations

Education's Missing Ingredient Victoria M. Young,2009-11-16 The cry has risen to fix our public schools Repeatedly it has fallen upon the ears of those without the ability to listen or the understanding necessary to develop the vision for a responsible plan to fix schools A new opportunity presents itself now It is time to take on the big and supposedly complicated problems of our education system Education s Missing Ingredient clearly describes the issues from the dangers associated with a lack of classroom discipline to the failings of the people to recognize and defend their schools from an overstepping federal government This book clarifies the answers to our education system s woes and our republic s flickering success It offers a formula for achieving that ever elusive goal of equal opportunity in American education As you begin to understand education's missing ingredient the simplicity of the solution will amaze you That path of understanding leads to the type of education system the United States has thus far failed to produce
