Information and Communication Technologies in Tourism 1997 A. Min Tjoa, 2012-12-06 For the fourth time now experts in tourism from various countries come to attend the ENTER conference in order to inform themselves and others about the current developments in the usage of information and communication technologies. The ENTER conference is thought as a platform for the exchange of ideas, experiences, opinions and visions among scientists and practitioners. The visions presented at the last three ENTER conferences have triggered many requirements of important ongoing and planned projects in the application of communication and information technologies in tourism. The scope of the papers of this proceedings covers the most recent and relevant topics in our area of interest. The sessions are primarily devoted to intelligent agents and systems, the future role of global reservation systems, the new chances of database applications due to the most recent technological developments and above all the role of the Internet and Intranet. I would like to express my cordial thanks to all institutions actively supporting this event, namely The Edinburgh Lothian Tourist Board, The International Federation of Information Technology in Tourism (IFITT). Several people spent numerous hours organizing the scientific programme of ENTER. The names of most of them will appear in the following pages.

The Geography of Tourism and Recreation C. Michael Hall, Stephen J. Page, C. Michael Hall, 2003-09-02. The Geography of Tourism and Recreation presents the first comprehensive introduction to tourism, leisure and recreation and the relationships between them. This accessible text includes a wealth of international case studies spanning Europe, North America, Australasia and China. Each chapter highlights the methods used by geographers to analyse recreation and tourism. It also introduces new perspectives from gender studies and postmodernism and examines key issues including the demand and supply of recreation and tourism, the role of public policy, planning and management, the impact of tourism and recreation on urban, rural, mountain and coastal environments, tourism and recreation in wilderness areas and other peripheral regions. The use of student text features makes it ideal for course use.

Tourism and Regional Development K.K. Sharma, 2004. Research Methods for Leisure, Recreation and Tourism, 2nd Edition Ercan Sirakaya-Turk, Muzaffer Uysal, William E Hammitt, Jerry J Vaske, 2017-04-13. Describing the fundamental elements of research methods for leisure, recreation and tourism, this new edition of a popular textbook is updated throughout. It covers the measurement of variables, sampling, questionnaire design and evaluation methods and also a wider discussion of writing proposals, communicating research findings, cross-cultural research and the use of new technologies in conducting research. Written by internationally renowned researchers in an accessible style, this book introduces both undergraduate and graduate students to the vital skills they will need to succeed in the leisure, recreation, tourism and hospitality industries.
