Tourism Phase 1 2014:

Tourism Spaces Alan A. Lew, 2021-07-19 Geographic space is a fundamental and essential construct of the physical reality within which we live move and construct our world Through space we create others anything that is any distance from us and we experience time by moving from one place point to another Because it is so fundamental to our experience we often take geographic space for granted Tourism Spaces Environments Locations and Movements shows some of the ways that geographers and other social scientists bring spatial considerations to the forefront of our research and understanding of tourism This is seen through the spatial arrangements and distributions of tourism phenomena such as attractions destinations and in the spatial behaviour of tourists themselves Today these spatial arrangements and patterns are increasingly being captured analysed and understood through various forms of formal and informal digital data The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of Tourism Geographies Tourism Microentrepreneurship

Duarte B. Morais, 2021-09-27 Tourism Microentrepreneurship shares scholarship and best practices to educate practitioners and to encourage more research on the development of microentrepreneurship and its impact on destination communities

Tourism, Change and the Global South Jarkko Saarinen, Jayne M. Rogerson, 2021-06-16 This significant volume is the first to focus on both the changing nature of tourism and the capacity of tourism to effect change especially in the Global South Geographically this changing nature of tourism is based on the transforming relationships between demand supply and location While this is nothing new in tourism recent decades have intensified the changing characteristics of global tourism From another perspective tourism represents a change and nowadays many localities and regions aim to use tourism as a tool for positive change i.e. development However this has turned out to be a challenging task in practice especially in the Global South context where the relationship between tourism growth and local development has often been controversial This book looks at a host of critical concepts in one volume such as growth and development adaptation and resilience sustainability and responsibility governance and planning and heritage and destination management strategies By understanding the drivers of change this book sheds new insight into the promise and role of sustainability and responsibility in tourism development This book will be of great interest to all upper level students academics and researchers in the fields of Tourism Geography and Cultural and Heritage studies Understanding the Evolution of Regional Economic
