International Practices to Promote Budget Literacy Harika Masud, Helene Pfeil, Sanjay Agarwal, Alfredo Gonzalez Brisenio, 2017-08-09 Budget literacy is defined as the ability to read, decipher and understand public budgets to enable and enhance meaningful citizen participation in the budget process. It is comprised of two main parts: i) a technical understanding of public budgets including familiarity with government spending, tax rates and public debt; and ii) the ability to engage in the budget process comprising of practical knowledge on day to day issues as well as an elementary understanding of the economic, social and political implications of budget policies, the stakeholders involved and when and how to provide inputs during the annual budget cycle. Given that no international standards or guidelines have been established for budget literacy education to date, this book seeks to address this gap by taking stock of illustrative initiatives promoting budget literacy for youth in selected countries. The underlying presumption is that when supply side actors in the budget process (governments) simplify and disseminate budget information for demand side actors (citizens), this information will then be used by citizens to provide feedback on the budget. However, since citizens are often insufficiently informed about public budgets to constructively participate in budget processes, one way to empower them and to remedy the problem of budget illiteracy is to provide budget literacy education in schools to youth, helping them evolve into civic minded adults with the essential knowledge needed for analyzing their government's fiscal policy objectives and measures and the confidence and sense of social responsibility to participate in the oversight of public resources This book elaborates on approaches learning outcomes pedagogical strategies and assessment approaches for budget literacy education and presents lessons that are relevant for the development improvement or scaling up of budget literacy initiatives

Encyclopedia of Geomorphology Andrew Goudie, 2013-04-15 Geomorphology the discipline which analyzes the history and nature of the earth's surface deals with the landforms produced by erosion weathering deposition transport and tectonic processes In recent decades there have been major developments in the discipline and these are reflected in this major Encyclopedia the first such reference work in the field to be published for thirty five years Encyclopedia of Geomorphology has been produced in association with the International Association of Geomorphologists IAG and has a truly global perspective The entries have been written by an international editorial team of contributors drawn from over thirty countries who are all among the leading experts in the discipline In two lavishly illustrated volumes Encyclopedia contains nearly 700 alphabetically organized entries to provide a comprehensive guide both to specific landforms and to the major types of geomorphological processes that create them The Encyclopedia also demonstrates the major developments that have taken place in recent years in our knowledge of tectonic and climatic changes and in the use of new techniques such as modelling remote sensing and process measurement Older concepts however are not forgotten and provide an historical perspective on the development of ideas Both accessible and authoritative Encyclopedia of Geomorphology is destined to become the definitive resource for students researchers and applied practitioners in the field of geomorphology and the cognate disciplines of geography earth science sedimentology and environmental science Proceedings of The Focus Conference \(TFC 2022\) Manyane Makua, Mariam Akinlolu, Mashango Sithole, Phiwayinkosi Gumede, Cebo Nyondo, 2023-02-08 This is an open access book It is a common cause globally that the abrupt emergence of Covid 19 wreaked havoc in all sectors including the higher education system The sudden closure of campuses as a social distancing measure to prevent community transmission has shifted face to face classes to online teaching and learning a transformative experiment for academics and students in most institutions This has thrown the focus on utilising Learning Management Systems LMS eLearning tools and platforms for effective student engagement which may have limitations of accessibility and affordability for many students The pandemic has exposed the shortcomings of the current higher education system and the need for more training of academics and practitioners in digital technology to adapt to the rapidly changing educational climate In the post pandemic situation eLearning and virtual education may become an integral part of the higher education system hence the question of re inventing higher education The higher education institutions and universities need to plan the post pandemic education and research strategies to ensure student learning outcomes and standards of educational quality With the move to online teaching and learning subsequently traditional assessments followed and were adapted and adopted for online assessment

Assessments lie at the heart of the teaching process. It shapes students' understanding of the curriculum and determines their ability to progress. Reflections on assessments during Covid 19 abounded with the challenges that both academics and students faced regarding online assessments including cheating and quality assurance issues. The focus on quality extended to the quality of teaching and learning in general. Moreover, the pandemic brought about the question of staff and student health and psychosocial support also became important. For academics, the abrupt shift to adapt to working from home and implementing online learning has led to overwork, low work-life balance, and compromised mental health. With a view on constructive and futuristic discourse, the sub-themes of the 2022 Focus conference encapsulate the current realities in the higher education sector and beyond. It further provides opportunities for an in-depth analysis based on the benefit of hindsight and foresight. The Organising Committee specifically coined the theme 'Re-inventing higher education: Insights, trends, and lessons learnt from specifically for the conference to reflect on and address the matters mentioned earlier. Academics, scholars, and practitioners in the higher education sector are called upon to share their research and express their perspectives on the reinvention of higher education.

Tourism Destinations, Definitions, Changes and Trends Caroline Mutuku, 2017-11-30. Research Paper undergraduate from the year 2013 in the subject Tourism Miscellaneous grade 1 language English abstract. The World Tourism Organization WTO sees tourism as an activity by people who travel outside of their customary neighborhood either for leisure business or for medical purposes for a period not exceeding one year. Some tourism scholars see tourism as the temporary movement of individuals away from their normal surroundings and the activities undertaken during their stay in the new destination as well as the facilities made to cater for the tourists needs Pundits estimate that about seventy percent of tourists visit the ten major tourism destinations while thirty percent share the other destinations It is therefore evident that the bulk of the revenue generated in the global travel goes to the established destinations therefore the undeveloped destinations need to undertake some strategic planning in order to attract tourists in their destinations Tourists are drawn to a certain tourism destination because of its attractiveness that reflects the feelings of the tourists regarding the destination perceived ability to meet their needs Thus the more a certain destination meets the tourist s needs the more it is seen to be attractive and consequently its popularity grows It is imperative that the sustainable tourism development concept be adopted in all tourism destinations in order to appropriately cater for the needs of the travellers and the host destinations while enhancing and protecting opportunities for the future Foster's CAPE(R) Tourism Unit 1 Monique S Walker, Remone Lamard Foster, 2024-01-30 FOSTER S CAPE R Questions a Mock Examination at the end of the book up to 400 multiple choice questions that cover the entire CAPE R Tourism Unit 1 syllabus the equivalent of 9 Practice exams the division of the multiple choice questions into modules multiple choice questions in all topic areas an answer key for the Diagnostic Test Mock Examination and the questions in each module explanations for answers for the Diagnostic Test Mock Examination and the questions in each module a student friendly and easy to use approach to preparing for exams complete coverage of the CAPE R Tourism Unit 1 syllabus a detailed bibliography for further reading and a 3 Week Exam Plan
