Course Information

This class is "hybrid" like in that most of your learning outside of class will require regular and consistent access to a computer with internet. It is unlike a hybrid class in that you will attend class every day for those experiences with the language that only face-to-face communication can provide. Below are the two sites that you will visit daily as you complete the work in this course:

Canvas	Vista Higher Learning
http://www.bellevuecollege.edu/canvas/ or https://bc.instructure.com/	https://www.vhlcenral.com
This is where Bellevue College houses all course information. For this course you will find these elements: • Syllabus and Calendar • Introduction Letter • Worksheets and Maps for in-class and at-home practice • Flash Cultura Discussion links and posts • Role Play and Monologue Assignments • Email format to turn in Monologues • Final Oral Exam Script and Rubric • Gradebook • Announcements relevant to class • Email communication with me	This is our book publisher's website. You will find these elements directly related to your homework grade: • Workbook assignments • Lab Manual assignments • Video Manual assignments • Vocabulary quizzes • Grammar quizzes The Publisher's site has so many resources so have fun exploring, but become most familiar with the above sections since your homework grade depends on them.

BC offers a wide variety of computer and learning labs to enhance learning and student success. Find current campus locations for all student labs here: <http://depts.bellevuecollege.edu/helpdesk/students/computerlabs/> and become familiar with the Language Lab in A 244 for individual or group study and homework completion.
