Speaking Christian Why Christian Words Have Lost Their Meaning:

Speaking Christian Marcus J. Borg, 2011-04-12 In Speaking Christian acclaimed Bible scholar Marcus Borg author of Meeting Jesus Again for the First Time argues that the very language Christians use has become dangerously distilled distorted and disconnected from the beliefs which once underpinned it Stating a case that will resonate with readers of N T Wright s Simply Christian Borg calls for a radical change to the language we use to invoke our beliefs the only remedy that will allow the Church s words to once again ring with truth power and hope

The INTRAfaiTh Conversation: How Do Christians Talk Among Ourselves About INTERfaith Matters? Susan Strouse, 2016-03-18 This crisp and cogent book by the Rev Dr Strouse is published at a time when both interfaith and intrafaith dialogue are critical to the vitality of spiritual life in our nation As a parish pastor in a small struggling congregation I have become increasingly aware of the insularity and isolation of many of our parishioners This seems less the result of inadequate parish education as it is the byproduct of too many people getting their information from biased TV networks so called social media or word of mouth We parish pastors need to examine our internal intra congregational conversations about diverse faith traditions and how they bear on congregational mission I was particularly impressed by the author s use of footnotes and her extensive bibliography The book is a walking talking workshop in print with its detailed reflection discussion questions and suggestions for further reading Thank you Pastor Strouse for such a comprehensive presentation of how to approach constructively this timely and important conversation

Faith Speaking Understanding Kevin J. Vanhoozer, 2014-01-01 In this volume highly esteemed scholar Kevin Vanhoozer introduces readers to a way of thinking about Christian theology that takes the work he began in the groundbreaking 2005 book The Drama of Doctrine to its next level Vanhoozer argues that theology is not merely a set of cognitive beliefs but is also something we do that involves speech and action alike He uses a theatrical model to explain the ways in which doctrine shapes Christian understanding and forms disciples The church Vanhoozer posits is the preeminent theater where the gospel is performed with doctrine directing this performance Doctrines are not simply truths to be stored shelved and stacked but indications and directions to be followed practiced and enacted In performing doctrine Christians are shaped into active disciples of Jesus Christ He goes on to examine the state of the church in today s world and explores how disciples can do or perform doctrine Written in an accessible and engaging style Faith Speaking Understanding sets forth a compelling vision of what the church is and what it should be doing and demonstrates the importance of Christian doctrine for this mission Disciples who want to follow Christ in all situations need doctrinal direction as they walk onto the social stage in the great theater of the world The Christian faith is about acknowledging and participating in the great thing God is doing in our world making all things new in Christ through the Holy Spirit Doctrine ministers understanding of God of the drama of redemption of the church as a company of faithful players and of individual actors all of whom have important roles to play In an age where things fall apart and centers fail to hold doctrine centers us in Jesus Christ in whom all things hold together Job Descriptions and Leadership Training in the United Methodist Church 2017-2020, 2017-01-01 The new version of Job Descriptions differs from previous editions including format and design changes Each job description includes this information Result Expected Spiritual Gifts and Qualifications Helpful for This Position Responsibilities Support to Expect from the Congregation Getting Started People and Agencies That Can Help Resources for Help In addition to individual positions within congregational life the book explores biblical roots and dimensions of leader development It includes new thinking based on field research and training leaders in a variety of settings Purchasers receive permission to reproduce individual job description pages for use in church workshops

Gracious Uncertainty Jane Sigloh, 2017-10-23 Gracious Uncertainty Faith in the Second Half of Life reflects on issues concerning everyone but which intensify as we grow older loving more fully dealing with loss finding consolation and having the courage to gaze even while shaking inwardly at the nearing reality of death Jane Sigloh is a guide both witty and wise She blends personal stories Scriptural insights and lessons drawn from years in ministry into insightful reflections on the beauty and challenges of aging Gracious Uncertainty is an intimate at times humorous and often spirit provoking guide through the unknowns of the later years Between Jesus and the Black Dog Michael Rothery, Anne-Marie McLaughlin, 2021-07-20 Christians have a special worldview affecting how they experience depression the common cold afflicting our emotional well being and that is the focus of this short book In it Christians and the important people in their support networks will read about the good news and the bad the blessings and pitfalls that a Christian faith brings to the problem of managing depressions The book is hopeful without being simplistic and it is steadfast in its commitment to the goal of human flourishing in a problematic world Taking Caesar Out of Jesus Robert M. Wills, 2013-10 Jesus is the center of Christian faith and the Bible is its holy book its sacred scriptures For hundreds of years this meant that Jesus was divine and the Bible was a divine product This remains the primary perspective for many Christians today However it has mutated appreciably for others It is not that Jesus is no longer thought of as the center of Christian faith or the Bible as Christianity's sacred scriptures Those remain true for everyone However studies in biblical criticism and the historical Jesus suggest Jesus was a Palestinian Jew a human being not different in that respect from you and me Divinity was bestowed upon him by his followers and eventually took the form of imperial divinity after the example of Caesar This presents a conundrum for Christianity What for instance is Christianity to do with a human being at its center How has Christianity accommodated imperial rule What do we do with those imperial titles by which he is known Lord Savior Redeemer and Son of God Taking Caesar out of Jesus presents a new portrait of Jesus based on solid historical evidence assembled from the works of hundreds of critical biblical scholars As the subtitle proclaims Jesus emerges from this book as a new figure relevant to the 21st century Some will say this new perspective destroys Christianity Others will find Jesus to be far more believable and compelling Anyone will find this progressive approach to uncovering the historical Jesus thought provoking This book however goes beyond biblical criticism and a new portrait of the historical Jesus. It confronts the Christian proclamation that Jesus is humanity's savior, including the notion that it needs a savior. It suggests that the historical Jesus never embraced the well-known notion of divine salvation. To the contrary, Jesus embraced Judaism's wisdom tradition. In the wisdom tradition, a person deals with the exigencies of life by developing a new vision of reality and by acting differently. Jesus did not provide an instruction manual for living; rather, he pointed us in the direction of self-management. As described in this book, this new way of living, taken from Jesus's parables and aphorisms, will startle some and stir others toward greater maturity and responsibility for their own lives.

The Abingdon Preaching Annual 2020 Tanya Linn Bennett, 2019-05-07. The Abingdon Preaching Annual is lectionary-based and follows the calendar year January-December. Each week's entry includes Primary Theme, Secondary Themes, and Worship Helps. The volume also includes essays on preaching topics, full sermons, and sermon series ideas. The Abingdon Preaching Annual is designed to stir the preacher's imagination, offer fresh intriguing ideas, and point the preacher in a good direction.

Something Greater Jeanne Choy Tate, 2013-05-21. Every day, Americans rub shoulders with the cultures of the world on the sidewalks of their cities and increasingly in small towns and rural areas. As civil discourse becomes increasingly divisive, many long for our nation to better deal with its diversity. Yet Americans also wonder how far the nation can stretch to embrace diversity and still maintain an identity. Ethnic and faith communities: Americans of many varieties share a fear of losing their traditions. Will the next generation still honor the values of caring for others and contributing to community life? The psychology of individualism that underlies American life is no longer adequate to guide a future filled with diversity. America's children may have wings to soar into the future, but they lack roots connecting them to a shared heritage. Something Greater explores the impact of individualism on American child-rearing practices and its inability to deal with diversity while sustaining life together in families and communities. By contrasting the intergenerational values of biblical and Chinese communities and current infant research with her own experiences in San Francisco's Chinatown, the author reveals how the living stories of heritage that lie at the heart of human development speak to a deep American hunger for shared values and connectedness in family and community.

Final Acts Gerry Cox, Robert Stevenson, 2016-12-05. The editors undertook this project to promote the International Conference on Death, Grief, and Bereavement in La Crosse, Wisconsin, USA. Throughout its history, the conference has attracted internationally known speakers. This book illustrates the quality of their presentations.

Clear Faith: Clearing Away Stumbling Blocks for a Faith that Makes Sense Susan Stover, 2012-04-04. Are you disillusioned by some aspects of Christianity, like having to believe the right things to get saved? Like the idea that an all-loving God would sentence anyone to hell? Like understanding an often-contradictory Bible? Then meet CLEAR FAITH. Clear away those stumbling blocks to uncover a faith of your own that makes sense. Meet the Jesus we can truly call brother. By seeing with new eyes through a clear lens, we can experience and live with a simple, straightforward faith that is globally inclusive, open, and compatible with a progressive scientific worldview.

Susan Stover writes as a seminary educated mainline Christian lay person who has been tripping over stumbling blocks long enough to compel her to seek new perspectives in faith The CLEAR FAITH perspective is like a brand new pair of glasses bringing the foggy into sharp focus Guidelines Ministries with Young People Cokesbury,2016-11-15 You have been called to ministry with young people those journeying through adolescence and those emerging from their teenage years to find themselves navigating the unpredictable and full of firsts years of their twenties and thirties This sacred and exciting leadership role comes with dozens of challenges to be addressed countless opportunities to touch lives and a myriad of blessings that you might never anticipate Your position as a leader with young people is the basis for building relationships and leading by example This Guideline formerly called Young Peoples Ministries covers an introduction to the ministry of a youth or young adult coordinator and is designed to help implement and guide the work of the ministry area This is one of the twenty six Guidelines for Leading Your Congregation 2017 2020 that cover church leadership areas including Church Council and Small Membership Church the administrative areas of Finance and Trustees and ministry areas focused on nurture outreach and witness including Worship Evangelism Stewardship Christian Education age level ministries Communications and more Spirituality That Makes a Difference Charles R.
