

Graduation Speech – Class of 2015
Saint Xavier High School - May 17, 2015

Graduates:

Welcome to this Day and to the meaning behind the dignity of this ceremony as you join the ranks of Saint Xavier's alumni.

You have been school leaders at an historical time as we concluded the celebration of the school's 150th Anniversary. Reflect for a moment on that history, on those who have gone before you, developing the philosophy, programs and facilities and paving the way for the opportunities you have had and the experiences we have shared. Soon it will be your responsibility to ensure a St. X experience for other students and that such opportunities are there and even better for them.

Then reflect one more time on our theme for the year: Together, we dream, we believe and we achieve. Those who walked the halls, took the classes and were part of the teams and activities before you continued to dream, developing a vision for what St. X has become and achieving in ways that propelled our school forward. And all along the way, they believed faithfully that God would walk with them and provide even more opportunities to learn, know, love and serve.

You have continued the traditions, stretched the vision and walked together in faith in all that we have asked you to do.

Helsinki in Early Twentieth-Century Literature Lieven Ameel, 2014-05-27 Helsinki in Early Twentieth Century Literature analyses experiences of the Finnish capital in prose fiction published in Finnish in the period 1890 1940 It examines the relationships that are formed between Helsinki and fictional characters focusing especially on the way in which urban public space is experienced Particular attention is given to the description of movement through urban space The primary material consists of a selection of more than sixty novels collections of short stories and individual short stories This study draws on two sets of theoretical frameworks on the one hand the expanding field of literary studies of the city and on the other hand concepts provided by humanistic and critical geography as well as by urban studies This study is the first monograph to examine Helsinki in literature written in Finnish It shows that rich descriptions of urban life have formed an integral part of Finnish literature from the late nineteenth century onward Around the turn of the twentieth century literary Helsinki was approached from a variety of generic and thematic perspectives which were in close dialogue with international contemporary traditions and age old images of the city and defined by events typical of Helsinki s own history Helsinki literature of the 1920s and 1930s further developed the defining traits that took form around the turn of the century adding a number of new thematic and stylistic nuances The city experience was increasingly aestheticized and internalized As the centre of the city became less prominent in literature the margins of the city and specific socially defined neighbourhoods gained in importance Many of the central characteristics of how Helsinki is experienced in the literature published during this period remain part of the ongoing discourse on literary Helsinki Helsinki as a city of leisure and light inviting dreamy wanderings the experience of a city divided along the fault lines of gender class and language the city as a disorientating and paralyzing cesspit of vice the city as an imago mundi symbolic of the body politic the city of everyday and often very mundane experiences and the city that invites a profound sense of attachment an environment onto which characters project their innermost sentiments

What Do You Say? Deborah Lagasse, Tyler Lagasse, 2015-04-10 Tyler Lagasse began reading and writing at the age of two His parents were amazed at how smart he was When he wouldn't talk to them they were concerned How could someone so smart not interact with their parents By the age of four they had their answer He was diagnosed with a form of autism Determined not to give up when faced with the challenge of raising a son with autism Deb Lagasse looked to find a place to fix her son What she discovered through this journey was that her son was not broken He just experienced the world differently compared to most people Full of insights struggles and celebrations What Do You Say Autism with Character will enlighten educate and most of all inspire you to accept the strengths that everyone has and believe in the power to really see those strengths as talents and skills For the first time read Tylers journal reflections of what he thinks believes and does as his mother reflects on those same experiences from a sometimes completely different point of view Whenever He Saw a Marching Band Michael A. Clarke,2000-09-19 Whenever He Saw A Marching Band is a love story about Kevin and Lou Ann a boy and girl who meet in high school and fall in love In college they drift apart and Kevin marries someone else Years later following his wife s death Kevin receives a letter from Lou Ann herself a widow He visits her and they soon realize that their love has been given a second chance After an old fashioned courtship they marry Both men and women especially the mature reader will enjoy this romance filled story of both youthful and adult love Painless Public Speaking Abne M. Eisenberg,Teri Kwal Gamble,1991 The theory and practice of public speaking is simplified and made available to all in this introductory text designed for those with little or no experience in public speaking It presents basic communication theory delineates the importance of credibility in persuasive speech and outlines the role of nonverbal communication and paralanguage A whole chapter is devoted to stage fright and suggestions are offered to reduce this anxiety A wide assortment of exercises are provided to test critical skills Originally published by Macmillan in 1982 From the Hood to the Holler Charles Booker,2022-04-26 Kentucky State Representative Charles Booker tells the improbable story of his journey from one of the poorest neighborhoods in the country to a political career forging new alliances among forgotten communities across the New South and beyond Charles Booker is a rising leader in our nation and an inspiration to me and all those who get to know his story and vision Senator Cory Booker Charles Booker grew up in one of the poorest neighborhoods in Kentucky living in the largely segregated West End of Louisville Faith and love were everything in his family but material comforts were scarce The electricity was sometimes shut off His mother often went hungry so her son could eat Even after he graduated from law school Booker rationed the insulin he took for diabetes Determined to build a world in which poverty and racism would not plague future generations he charted his own course into Kentucky politics a world dominated by the myth of an urban rural divide and controlled by the formidable Republican establishment In this stirring account Booker unfolds his journey from the heart of Louisville to the deepest reaches of Kentucky s rural landscapes reflecting the journey America itself must make on the way to a progressive future Robbed of multiple family members by gun violence Booker found the roots of a system built to fail him and his neighbors in everything from the hypocrisy of elected officials to the structural racism embedded in the state s budget Yet it wasn t until his unlikely appointment to the Department of Fish and Wildlife Resources that he understood the transformative power of the issues that bound his family with those in rural Appalachia In coal country he met citizens who like those in the West End suffered from extreme isolation for whom fresh food and economic stability were scarce who lacked the resources to overcome their cynicism about change Through his work as the youngest Black state legislator in Kentucky Booker built an unprecedented alliance between the hood and the holler This coalition was the basis for a thrilling grassroots Senate campaign that nearly stunned the nation putting Senators Mitch McConnell and Rand Paul on notice that the days of business as usual were over From the Hood to the Holler is both a moving coming of age story and an urgent political intervention a much needed blueprint for how equity and racial justice might transcend partisan divisions in Kentucky throughout the South and across America

Black Men in Law School Darrell Jackson, 2018-03-19 Grounded in Critical Race Theory CRT Black Men in Law School refutes the claim that when African American law students are mismatched with more selective law schools the result is lower levels of achievement and success Presenting personal narratives and counter stories Jackson demonstrates the inadequacy of the mismatch theory and deconstructs the ways race is constructed within American public law schools Calling for a replacement to mismatch theory Jackson offers an alternative theory that considers marginalized student perspectives and crystallizes the nuances and impact that historically exclusionary institutions and systems have on African American law school students To further the debate on affirmative action this book shows that experiences and voices of African American law school students are a crucial ingredient in the debate on race and how it functions in law schools
