After a steamy encounter with Asgard's Black Prince, unlocks her genetics; an unsuspecting scientist discovers not only are gods real, she is one. Can she survive mythological worlds that hold dangers she's never imagined? When Shannon boards her flight to London, she's stunned; her seatmate is a famous singer, songwriter and actor, Tod Corvus. Their rawly sensual union forges an unbreakable connection, triggering her dormant genes while uncovering his hidden identity as Loki, Asgardian God of Chaos. Story and Song: With her worldview and sense of identity shattered, Shannon reels at the destruction of everything she's worked to build in her life. How can she trust her heart to another after her painful past? But more than her feelings are at stake. Mastering her awakened goddess powers presents its own challenges as anger generates a wall of fire or fear spawns a tornado. With mythology coming to life around her in an expanding universe beyond Earth, adjusting to her new reality requires time she may not have. Loki never expected to be blessed with a soulmate, especially after the murder of his Valkyrie wife and the tragic death of his oldest brother. Finding Shannon, then losing her within hours of her goddess transformation, is devastating. And it's his fault. As a new immortal of unknown background, she has yet to learn the range of her abilities, how to protect herself or even what threats await her. Asgard's powerful Black Prince has never feared his enemies. Until now. Now he has everything to lose. If you enjoy Katee Robert's Dark Olympus series, Sarah J. Maas' Throne of Glass, ACOTAR or Crescent City series, Rebecca Yarros' Fourth Wing or Nalini Singh's Archangel series, you won't be able to put down Loki and Shannon's story. Don't miss out on this first book of the Triquetra: Prophecy and introduction to the Gods Among Us universe.
