Sarah Elaine Eaton

Special Characteristics of Nfsas:

Social Justice and Education in the 21st Century Willie Pearson Jr., Vijay Reddy, 2021-04-10 The world is not an equal place There are high and low income countries and high and low income households For each group there are differential educational opportunities leading to differential educational outcomes and differential labor market opportunities This pattern often reproduces the privileges and inequalities of groups in a society This book explores this differentiation in education from a social justice lens Comparing the United States and South Africa this book analyzes each country's developmental thinking on education from human capital and human rights approaches in both primary and higher education The enclosed contributions draw from different disciplines including legal studies sociology psychology computer science and public policy

Male Infertility Sergio Oehninger, Thinus Kruger, 2007-01-23 Male factor infertility is a common problem in reproductive medicine and can have a significant effect on the outcome of IVF treatment This comprehensive book covers the diagnosis and treatment of male factor infertility in depth It opens with a section on the basic science underlying the production of male gametes There is then a major section

Legal pedagogy, practice and curriculum transformation: What does the future hold and look like? Charles Maimela, 2025-07-18 In an era marked by rapid technological innovation and complex socio-political shifts legal education stands at a critical crossroads This timely publication explores the imperative for a curriculum that is both responsive and resilient capable of adapting to the evolving needs of students institutions and society at large Blending theoretical analysis with practical insight the book offers forward-thinking strategies to navigate the multifaceted challenges of curriculum transformation Drawing on the lived experiences and reflections of law educators across diverse institutions it provides a unique lens into how curriculum innovation can enhance teaching learning and research in the legal academy More than a commentary this book is a call to action a vital resource for educators academic leaders and policymakers committed to ensuring the continued relevance excellence and social responsiveness of legal education in the 21st century

Handbook of Academic Integrity Sarah Elaine Eaton, 2023-12-04 The book brings together diverse views from around the world and provides a comprehensive overview of academic integrity and how to create the ethical academy At the same time the Handbook does not shy away from some of the vigorous debates in the field such as the causes of academic integrity breaches There has been an explosion of interest in academic integrity in the last 20-30 years New technologies that have made it easier than ever for students to cut and paste coupled with global media scandals of high-profile researchers behaving badly have resulted in the perception that plagiarism is on the rise This in combination with the massification and commercialisation of higher education has resulted in a burgeoning interest in the importance of academic integrity how to safeguard it and how to address breaches appropriately What may have seemed like a relatively easy topic to address students copying sources without attribution has in fact turned out to be a complex interdisciplinary field of research requiring contributions from linguists psychologists social scientists anthropologists teaching and learning specialists mathematicians accountants medical doctors lawyers and philosophers to name just a few Because of this broad interest and input this handbook serves as the single authoritative reference work which brings together the vast growing interdisciplinary and at times contradictory body of literature For both established researchers practitioners and those new to the field this Handbook provides a one stop shop as well as a launching pad for new explorations and discussions

Higher Education, 2023-11-02 COVID wrought havoc on the world's economic systems Higher education did not escape the ravages brought on by the pandemic as institutions of higher education around the world faced major upheavals in their educational delivery systems Some institutions were prepared for the required transition to online learning Most were not Whether prepared or not educators rose to the challenge The innovativeness of educators met the challenges as digital learning replaced the face to face environment In fact some of the distance models proved so engaging that many students no longer desire a return to the face to face model As with all transitions some things were lost while others were gained This book examines practice in the field as institutions struggled to face the worst global pandemic in the last century The book is organized into four sections on Perils and Promises The State of Online Education Goals and Challenges of Online Learning and Innovations in the Age of COVID It presents various perspectives from educators around the world to illustrate the struggles and triumphs of those facing new challenges and implementing new ideas to empower the educational process These discussions shed light on the impact of the pandemic and the future of higher education post COVID Higher education has been forever changed and higher education as it once was may never return While many questions arise the achievements in meeting and overcoming the pandemic illustrate the creativity and innovativeness of educators around the world who inspired future generations of learners to reach new heights of accomplishment even in the face of the pandemic

Delivering Entrepreneurship Education in Africa Chux Gervase Iwu, Richard Shambare, 2023-12-14 Delivering Entrepreneurship Education in Africa brings together a collection of academic studies that offer an in depth analysis of the current state of entrepreneurship education in Africa The chapter authors engage discussions on how to make entrepreneurship education an attractive field of study for African students

Sustainable Construction in the Era of the Fourth Industrial Revolution Clinton Aigbavboa, Benita Zulch, Wellington Thwala, 2025-07-26 Proceedings of the 16th International Conference on Applied Human Factors and Ergonomics and the Affiliated Conferences Orlando Florida USA 26-30 July 2025

Democratizing Higher Education Policy M.T. Sehoole, 2013-10-14 This book was written with the purpose of analyzing the challenges faced by the post apartheid government in South Africa with regard to reform of higher education It covers the apartheid context of higher education resistance to the system and its ultimate demise democratic processes in post apartheid reform agenda and how this agenda was emptied of its radical content as a result of global and local pressures Highlighted are key constraints in the reform process including the compromise pact agreed upon between the apartheid government and the ruling African National Congress the rapidly globalizing environment underpinned by neoliberal principles within which South Africa's transition took place shifts in macro economic policies of government towards neo liberal policy the inheritance of the bureaucracy and the inexperience of new government officials These are presented in a narrative style that combines the author's experience the voices of key players involved and important data from a range of documentary sources This is the first single authored book in post apartheid South African that has systematically looked at higher education reform

Responding to the Educational Needs of Post-school Youth Nico Cloete, 2009 The research reflected in this volume indicates that in South Africa there are almost three million youth between the ages of 18 and 24 who are not in education training or employment a situation which points not only to a grave wastage of talent but also to the possibility of serious social disruption The authors in this work paint a picture of the enormous reservoir of human talent which exists in the country but is not provided with the means to develop Responding to the Educational Needs of Post School Youth attempts not only to sketch the scope and extent of the current post school educational crisis but also to explore possible solutions through collaboration in the higher education sector The findings reported here are a result of three distinctive but linked research components conducted by the Further Education and Training Institute University of Western Cape the Centre for Higher Education Transformation and the Southern Africa Labour and Development Research Unit University of Cape Town The research was funded by the Ford Foundation and the project conducted in consultation with the Department of Education

Creating Conditions for Student Success Magda Fourie-Malherbe, 2021-12-15 The various chapters of this book have brilliantly provided perspectives on creating conditions for success in higher education from a wide variety of stakeholders within a university environment The rich content comes from varying fields of study as well as academic development and student affairs directorates within the institution This is what is exciting about the book The diversity of focus in chapters makes the book relevant to anyone with interest in higher education matters From the opening to the closing chapter students are making a contribution on what the university has done or is doing for them to succeed or what it should consider doing to improve its service to students This touches on every environment that students find themselves in a university setting from residences to the classroom to commuter or off campus students The book's extended use of the capabilities approach and critical social theories has enabled it to provide nuances on not only the success of students but more importantly about how the higher education environment can transform itself to practices relevant for the sector today The various research studies in this book can benefit similar university contexts nationally and internationally

Rural Transitions to Higher Education in South Africa Sue Timmis, Thea de Wet, Kibashini Naidoo, Sheila Trahar, Lisa Lucas, Emmanuel Mfanafuthi Mqgwashu, Patricia Muhuro, Gina Wisker, 2021-09-14 This unique and timely book focuses on research conducted into the experiences of students from rural backgrounds in South Africa foregrounding decolonial perspectives on their negotiation of access and transitions to higher education This book highlights not only the challenges of coming from a rural background against the historical backdrop of apartheid and ongoing colonialism but also shows the immense assets that students from rural areas bring into higher education Through detailed narratives created by student co researchers the book charts early experiences in rural communities negotiations of transitions to university and in many cases to urban life and students subsequent journeys through higher education spaces and curricula The book will be of significant interest and value to those engaged in rurality research across diverse settings those interested in the South African higher education context and higher education more widely Its innovative participatory methodology will be invaluable to researchers seeking to conduct collaborative research that draws on decolonising approaches

Low-Income Students, Human Development and Higher Education in South Africa Melanie Walker, Monica McLean, 2022-07-15 This book explores learning outcomes for low income rural and township youth at five South African universities The book is framed as a contribution to southern and Africa centred scholarship adapting Amartya Sen s capability approach and a framework of key concepts capabilities functionings context conversion factors poverty and agency to investigate opportunities and obstacles to achieved student outcomes This approach allows a reimagining of inclusive learning outcomes to encompass the multi dimensional value of a university education and a plurality of valued cognitive and non cognitive outcomes for students from low income backgrounds whose experiences are strongly shaped by hardship Based on capability theorising and student voices the book proposes for policy and practice a set of contextual higher education capability domains and corresponding functionings orientated to more justice and more equality for each person to have the opportunities to be and to do what they have reason to value The book concludes that sufficient material resources are necessary to get into university and flourish while there the benefits of a university education should be rich and multi dimensional so that they can result in functionings in all areas of life as well as work and future study the inequalities and exclusion of the labour market and pathways to further study must be addressed by wider economic and social policies for inclusive learning outcomes to be meaningful and that universities ought to be doing more to enable black working class students to participate and succeed Low Income Students Human Development and Higher Education in South Africa makes an original contribution to capabilitarian scholarship conceptually in theorising a South based multi dimensional student well being higher education matrix and a rich reconceptualisation of learning outcomes as well as empirically by conducting rigorous longitudinal in depth mixed methods research on students lives and experiences in higher education in South Africa The audience for the book includes higher education researchers international capabilitarian scholars practitioners and policy makers

Transformation in Higher Education Nico Cloete, 2006 This book presents the most comprehensive and most thorough study of the developments in South African higher education and research after the first democratic elections of 1994 that is of post Apartheid South African higher education This volume will provide its readers with a detailed insight into the new i e post 1994 South African higher education system The large number of experienced authors and editors involved in the book guarantees that the reader will be introduced in the new SA

higher education system from a large number of perspectives that are presented in a consistent and coherent way This book will be of interest to scholars students administrators policymakers and politicians interested in South Africa higher education and research and policy analysis Publications on higher education are not new But this volume which is the first of its kind as a collective effort of tracing and examining the twists and turns taken by processes of change in the South African higher education system in a context of profound societal and global transformation adds a fresh dimension to the debate In its examination of the extent to which the changes were in line with policy intentions particularly with regard to equity democratisation responsiveness and efficiency and how a new institutional landscape started emerging it makes a momentous contribution to the current debate about higher education restructuring Njabulo Ndebele Vice chancellor University of Cape Town and Chair of the South African Association of University Vice chancellors This book addresses a rich variety of issues on South African higher education It puts these in the relevant context of the process of globalization and it shows that the South African experiences offer us a lot to learn Highly recommended for those who are intrigued by the innovations taking place in South African higher education as well as for those who intend to grasp the effects of globalization Frans van Vught Rector Magnificus and founding Director of the Center for Higher Education Policy Studies University of Twente The Netherlands Reflection is a crucial ingredient to learning In this book on higher education we have reflections on a unique period in the history of a country that managed its transition to democracy in a way that was unique but from which we can all learn Higher education in South Africa played a vital role in that transition and was part of the many tensions choices and influences They have been thoughtfully captured Brenda Gourley Vice chancellor The Open University UK and board member Centre for Higher Education Transformation No contemporary higher education system has changed as dramatically as that in South Africa This book rich in data examines the changes that took place and offers insights into how change frequently cannot be predicted The analysis captures the excitement high expectations remarkable successes and failures in the transformation of the apartheid system of higher education This excellent study provides rich fare for comparative analysis Fred M Hayward American Council on Education Pilot Project Executive Vice President Council for Higher Education Accreditation US

Higher Education ICT Integration in Africa Ke Yu, Reuben Dlamini, 2024-08-21 This multidisciplinary edited volume examines higher education's ICT integration in Africa contributing a new and inclusive change readiness framework to better understand how to manage ICT or other technological disruptions in resource restrained contexts Tackling ICT incorporation in HEIs from different levels chapters document case studies from countries such as Uganda South Africa Rwanda Eswatini and Zimbabwe to demonstrate both the complexity of integration but also the successes it has enabled and under which conditions The cases included in this book also exhibit better incorporation of both change content and process while some cases also make explicit reference to other technology adoption models Ultimately the book highlights conceptual and empirical research to inform practices and policy development in Africa improving multi level success or change readiness in ICT incorporation in HEIs in Africa Addressing various gaps in existing literature and proposing innovative solutions like the multilevel change readiness model this book will therefore be of interest to scholars researchers and academics in the fields of higher education ICT integration and educational technology more broadly The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license

Understanding the Higher Education Market in Africa Emmanuel Mogaji, Felix Maringe, Robert Ebo Hinson, 2020-03-06 This book offers theoretical and practical insights into the marketing of higher education in Africa It explores the key players challenges and policies affecting higher education across the continent their marketing strategies and the students selection process While acknowledging the vast size of the continent this book aims to provide an understanding of the dynamics of higher education in Africa This book recognises the private and government involvement in higher education provision and students and staff as stakeholders in the marketisation process Strategic efforts are directed by universities to attract prospective students This book further addresses issues such as the responses of higher education sectors to the notion of markets and marketing consumerism and competition in higher education in Africa conceptions of the commodification of higher education in Africa and the dominance of Western epistemologies and their influence in transforming higher education sectors Students as consumers in increasingly marketised higher education sectors in Africa are also discussed Though primarily for marketing students and academic researchers the book's feature of blended theoretical and practical knowledge means that it will also be of interest to marketing practitioners and university managers
