within COMPASS for students with autism Advances in measurement of IEP quality for transition age autistic youth Integration of accessible online educational materials necessary to implement COMPASS feasibly when implemented by school consultants and autism trainers Lessons learned from professional development and training of community based autism school consultants for developing high quality intervention plans COMPASS IEP goal attainment and fidelity outcomes with face to face telecoaching and electronic feedback COMPASS and Innovative Education for Students with Autism is an invaluable resource for educators clinicians scientist practitioners and therapists as well as researchers professors and graduate students in the fields of child and school psychology behavioral therapy and social work as well as rehabilitation special education speech pathology and all interrelated disciplines Federal Probation ,1979 History of Special Education Anthony F. Rotatori,Festus E. Obiakor,Jeffrey P. Bakken,2011-01-25 Examines the history of special education by categorical areas for example Learning Disabilities Mental Retardation and Autistic Spectrum Disorders This title includes chapters on the changing philosophy related to educating students with exceptionalities as well as a history of legal and legislation content concerned with special education Assistive Technology Emily C. Bouck,2015-12-31 Succinct yet comprehensive Assistive Technology is designed to help educators better understand assistive technology and how it can support students with disabilities from early childhood through the transition into adulthood This practical book is organized around the purpose of technology and the support it can provide rather than a student s disability categorization Grounded in research and filled with engaging case studies and activities author Emily C Bouck offers an unbiased depiction of the advantages and limitations of technology Readers are exposed to a full range of assistive technology including up to date coverage of low and high technology as well as free and for purchase options that can be used to support students with disabilities Special Education Law Case Studies David F. Bateman,Jenifer Cline,2019-01-12 Tremendous changes have occurred over the past decade in the provision of services to students with disabilities Federal mandates continue to define requirements for a free appropriate public education FAPE in the least restrictive environment Additionally there has been an increase in the number of lawsuits filed against school districts regarding the provision of educational services for students with disabilities Case studies are a helpful way to understand these difficult issues The case studies presented here are actual students eligible for special education and related services The case studies are represented not to tell districts and parents that this is the only way questions about special education law can be answered but to provide likely answers along with commentary for analysis The cases were developed to help new and experienced special education leaders and supervisors survive the pressures of working with students with disabilities while working to provide appropriate services and prevent litigation
