Spinach Madeleine Recipe:

The House of Laura Covington Selma Sullivan, 2000-10 I've held this story close to my heart like some romantic secret I would have let it remain in its esoteric state but for the living memory of my parents Perhaps the telling of it is like the discharging of a kind of unusual filial debt The relationships depicted here extend through time and across generations and are not rooted in once locale one story I believe that many who read this story will see elements of their own lives hidden in its pages Maybe my story which found reality in an old house in a small southern city will open doors of your imagination and allow the characters that fill your memories help you forget a wounded past Our memories and those of the people we love sometimes require a witness to keep them from evaporating into a misty void where they are lost forever My story is real only in my heart but my characters are your characters They walk among us
