Mathematical Psychology in Progress Edward E. Roskam,2012-12-06 This volume is the third volume of papers originating from the European Mathematical Psychology Group Earlier volumes were E Degreef J van Buggenhaut Eds Trends In Mathematical Psychology Amsterdam North Holland Publ Cy 1984 and E E Roskam R Suck Eds Progress in Mathematical Psychology Amsterdam Elsevier Science Publ As the title indicates this volume presents work in progress which was reported in one of the recent annual meetings of the European Mathematical Psychology Group The Group finds it worthwhile to disseminate this work using a review process which is somewhat less strict and a publication lag which is shorter than would be the case for standard international journals The editor is happy that the meetings of the European Mathematical Psychology Group are regularly attended by colleagues from overseas Their contributions also appear in this volume as was the case in earlier volumes Despite apparent heterogeneity the reader will observe that European mathematical psychologists have a keen interest in basic issues of mathematical modeling and measurement theory and that also substantive topics such as decision making perception and performance are studied in the context of formal modeling Also and perhaps of more than casual importance for future developments is the fact that theory experiment and data analysis go closely together It should therefore not surprise that psychometric topics and topics in scaling are represented in this volume alongside with topics of a more purely mathematical nature

Historical Research, Creative Writing, and the Past Kevin A. Morrison, Pålvi Rantala, 2023-07-12 Although historical research undertaken in different disciplines often requires speculation and imagination it remains relatively rare for scholars to foreground these processes explicitly as a knowing method Historical Research Creative Writing and the Past brings together researchers in a wide array of disciplines including literary studies and history ethnography design film and sound studies who employ imagination creativity or fiction in their own historical scholarship or who analyze the use of imagination creativity or fiction to make historical claims by others This volume is organized into four topical sections related to representations of the past textual and conceptual approaches material and emotional approaches speculative and experiential approaches and embodied methodologies and covers a variety of temporal periods and geographical contexts Reflecting on the methodological theoretical and ethical underpinnings of writing history creatively or speculatively the essays situate themselves within current debates over epistemology and interdisciplinarity They yield new insights into historical research methods including archival investigations and source criticisms while offering readers tangible examples of how to do history differently Contemporary Ergonomics 1998 Margaret Hanson,2003-08-29 This series provides a fast track for publication of suitable papers from international contributors The papers are chosen on the basis of abstracts submitted to a selection panel in the autumn prior to the conference IN addition to mainstream ergonomists and human factor specialists contemporary ergonomics will appeal to all those who have an interest in peoples interaction with their working and leisure environment including designers manufacturing and production engineers health and safety specialists organisational applied and engineering psychologists Ideas and Mechanism Margaret Dauler Wilson,2014-07-14 For more than three decades Margaret Wilson s essays on early modern philosophy have influenced scholarly debate Many are considered classics in the field and remain as important today as they were when they were first published Until now however they have never been available in book form and some have been particularly difficult to find This collection not only provides access to nearly all of Wilson s most significant work but also demonstrates the continuity of her thought over time These essays show that Wilson possesses a keen intelligence coupled with a fearlessness in tackling the work of early modern philosophers as well as the writing of modern commentators Many of the pieces collected here respond to philosophical issues of continuing importance The thirty one essays gathered here deal with some of the best known early philosophers including Descartes Leibniz Locke Spinoza and Berkeley As this collection shows Wilson is a demanding critic She repeatedly asks whether the philosophers arguments were adequate to the problems they were trying to solve and whether these arguments remain compelling today She is not afraid to engage in complex argument but at the same time her own writing remains clear and fresh Ideas and Mechanism is an essential collection of work by one of the leading scholars of our era Originally published in 1999 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905 Narration as Argument Paula Olmos,2017-05-09 This book presents reflections on the relationship between narratives and argumentative discourse It focuses on their functional and structural similarities or dissimilarities and offers diverse perspectives and conceptual tools for analyzing the narratives potential power for justification explanation and persuasion Divided into two sections the first Part under the title Narratives as Sources of Knowledge and Argument includes five chapters addressing rather general theoretical and characteristically philosophical issues related to the argumentative analysis and understanding of narratives We may perceive here how scholars in Argumentation Theory have recently approached certain topics that have a close connection with mainstream discussions in epistemology and the cognitive sciences about the justificatory potential of narratives The second Part entitled Argumentative Narratives in Context brings us six more chapters that concentrate on either particular functions played by argumentatively oriented narratives or particular practices that may benefit from the use of special kinds of narratives Here the focus is either on the detailed analysis of contextualized examples of narratives with argumentative qualities or on the careful understanding of the particular demands of certain well defined situated activities as diverse as scientific theorizing or war policing that may be satisfied by certain uses of narrative discourse Practical Argument Laurie G.
