2005 National Electrical Estimator Edward J. Tyler, 2004-11 If you need to estimate the cost of electrical systems in buildings this book will be your most reliable guide to selecting the right material figuring the labor time required for installation and totaling the installation cost and material price Ed Tyler was named National Estimator of the Year by the American Society of Professional Estimators His depth and breadth of knowledge make him one of the nation's foremost authorities on electrical estimating Book jacket

2005 National Home Improvement Estimator Ben Moselle, 2004-11 Manhours labor and material costs for most home improvement work Includes instructions for doing the work with helpful illustrations and tricks and tips from experienced remodelers

Understanding Building Failures James Douglas, Bill Ransom, 2007-05-18 This new edition of the classic textbook provides a solid introduction to the study of defects in buildings and subsequently to good practice conservation and repair With new material this is an excellent practitioner and student reference book

Contractor's Guide to Quickbooks Pro 2002 Karen Mitchell, Craig Savage, Jim Erwin, 2002 According to a recent national survey more construction contractors use QuickBooks Pro and QuickBooks than all other accounting programs combined And for good reason QuickBooks Pro excels at all the routine paperwork in a construction office writing checks keeping track of your bank balance sending out invoices and statements creating up to the minute profit and loss statements for the month year or by job writing payroll checks paying suppliers and subcontractors tracking job costs comparing estimated and actual costs for each job and much more But there's a lot to learn in QuickBooks Pro And converting to a new accounting system can be a complex and confusing task even if you have a strong background in accounting and plenty of time to install the new system That's why this book was written because most construction pros aren't accounting experts and have more important work to do at the job site

2006 National Renovation & Insurance Repair Estimator Jonathan Russell, 2005-10
