Some Chicken

Did you know? The joke "why did the chicken cross the road?" dates back to 1847. There are more chickens than any other bird, at a population of over 20 billion. That's about four times more chickens on Earth than humans!

Clumsily (♩ = 152)

The musical score is written for piano and organ. It consists of three systems of music. The first system begins with a treble and bass clef, a key signature of one sharp (F#), and a 2/4 time signature. The tempo is marked as 152 beats per minute. The piano part features a rhythmic accompaniment with eighth and sixteenth notes. The organ part has a melodic line with various ornaments and slurs. A large watermark of a chicken is overlaid on the first system. The second system is marked 'simile' and continues the piano accompaniment. The third system concludes the piece with a final melodic flourish in the organ part.
