Sophies Choice Open Road English Edition:

Sophie's Choice William Styron, 2010-05-04 This award winning novel of love survival and agonizing regret in post WWII Brooklyn belongs on that small shelf reserved for American masterpieces The Washington Post Book World Winner of the National Book Award and a modern classic Sophie's Choice centers on three characters Stingo a sexually frustrated aspiring novelist Nathan his charismatic but violent Jewish neighbor and Sophie an Auschwitz survivor who is Nathan's lover Their entanglement in one another's lives will build to a stirring revelation of agonizing secrets that will change them forever Poetic in its execution and epic in its emotional sweep Sophie's Choice explores the good and evil of humanity through Stingo's burgeoning worldliness Nathan's volatile personality and Sophie's tragic past Mixing elements from Styron's own experience with themes of the Holocaust and the history of slavery in the American South the novel is a profound and haunting human drama representing Styron at the pinnacle of his literary brilliance This ebook features an illustrated biography of William Styron including original letters rare photos and never before seen documents from the Styron family and the Duke University Archives

The Collected Novels William Styron, 2013-05-21 Four novels including a Pulitzer Prize winner and a National Book Award winner by the 1 New York Times bestselling master Lie Down in Darkness is William Styron's stunning debut a classic portrait of one Southern family's tragic spiral into destruction Set This House on Fire is a story of evil and redemption involving three American men whose paths converge on a film shoot in Italy at the close of the 1940s hailed as one of the finest novels of our time by the San Francisco Chronicle Gripping and unforgettable The Confessions of Nat Turner is the Pulitzer winning portrait of the leader of America's bloodiest slave revolt And Sophie's Choice is the National Book Award winning novel of love survival and regret set in Brooklyn in the wake of the Second World War Taken together these four novels exploring themes of good and evil sin and atonement and the ineradicable bonds of place and family represent Styron at the pinnacle of his literary brilliance

Book Wars John B. Thompson, 2021-03-04 This book tells the story of the turbulent decades when the book publishing industry collided with the great technological revolution of our time From the surge of ebooks to the self publishing explosion and the growing popularity of audiobooks Book Wars provides a comprehensive and fine grained account of technological disruption in one of our most important and successful creative industries Like other sectors publishing has been thrown into disarray by the digital revolution The foundation on which this industry had been based for 500 years the packaging and sale of words and images in the form of printed books was called into question by a technological revolution that enabled symbolic content to be stored manipulated and transmitted quickly and cheaply Publishers and retailers found themselves facing a proliferation of new players who were offering new products and services and challenging some of their most deeply held principles and beliefs The old industry was suddenly thrust into the limelight as bitter conflicts erupted between publishers and new entrants including powerful new tech giants who saw the world in very different ways The book wars had begun While ebooks were at the heart of many of these conflicts Thompson argues that the most fundamental consequences lie elsewhere The print on paper book has proven to be a remarkably resilient cultural form but the digital revolution has transformed the industry in other ways spawning new players which now wield unprecedented power and giving rise to an array of new publishing forms Most important of all it has transformed the broader information and communication environment creating new challenges and new opportunities for publishers as they seek to redefine their role in the digital age This unrivalled account of the book publishing industry as it faces its greatest challenge since Gutenberg will be essential reading for anyone interested in books and their future

Architect of Death at Auschwitz John W. Primomo, 2020-07-16 Rudolf Hoss has been called the greatest mass murderer in history As the longest serving commandant of Auschwitz he supervised the killing of more than 1 1 million people Unlike many of his Nazi colleagues who denied either knowing about or participating in the Holocaust Hoss remorselessly admitted both at the Nuremberg war crimes trial and in his memoirs that he sent hundreds of thousands of Jews to their deaths in the gas chambers frankly describing the killing process His innovations included the use of hydrogen cyanide derived from the pesticide Zyklon B in the camp s gas chambers Hoss lent his name to the 1944 operation that gassed 430 000 Hungarian Jews in 56 days exceeding the capacity of the Auschwitz s crematoria This biography follows Hoss throughout his life from his childhood through his Nazi command and eventual reckoning at Nuremberg Using historical records and Hoss autobiography it explores the life and mind of one of history s most notorious and sadistic individuals

Consumed Benjamin R. Barber, 2008-03-17 Powerful and disturbing No one who cares about the future of our public life can afford to ignore this book Jackson Lears A powerful sequel to Benjamin R Barber s best selling Jihad vs McWorld Consumed offers a vivid portrait of a global economy that overproduces goods and targets children as consumers in a market where there are never enough shoppers and where the primary goal is no longer to manufacture goods but needs Disturbing provocative and compelling this book examines phenomena as seemingly disparate as adolescent fashion trends for adults megachurches declining voter participation the privatization of the public sphere branding and the rise of online shopping to show how the freedoms of the free market have undermined the freedoms of the deliberative adult citizen Barber brings together extensive empirical research with an original theoretical framework for understanding our contemporary predicament

When Stories Travel Cristina Della Coletta, 2012-03-19 Adapting fiction into film is as author Cristina Della Coletta asserts a transformative encounter that takes place not just across media but across different cultures In this book Della Coletta explores what it means when the translation of fiction into film involves writers directors and audiences who belong to national historical and cultural formations different from that of the adapted work In particular Della Coletta examines narratives and films belonging to Italian North American French and Argentine cultures These include Luchino Visconti's adaptation of James M Cain's The Postman Always Rings Twice Federico Fellini's version of Edgar Allan Poe's story Never Bet the Devil Your Head Alain Corneau's film based on Antonio Tabucchi's Notturmo indiano and Bernardo Bertolucci's take on Jorge Luis Borges's Tema del traidor y del héroe In her framework for analyzing these cross cultural film adaptations Della Coletta borrows from the philosophical hermeneutics of Hans Georg Gadamer and calls for a hermeneutics of estrangement a practice of mediation and adaptation that defines cultures nations selfhoods and their aesthetic achievements in terms of their transformative encounters Stories travel to unexpected and interesting places when adapted into film by people of diverse cultures While the intended meaning of the author may not be perfectly reproduced it still holds Della Coletta argues an equally valid and important intellectual claim upon its interpreters With a firm grasp on the latest developments in adaptation theory Della Coletta invites scholars of media studies cultural history comparative literature and adaptation studies to deepen their understanding of this critical encounter between texts writers readers and cultural movements Suicidology Ronald W. Maris,2019-01-02 Integrating research from multiple disciplines this text provides a comprehensive perspective on suicide and examines what works in prevention and intervention The author is a pioneering researcher and clinician who addresses the classification prevalence and assessment of suicide and self destructive behaviors and explores risk factors at multiple levels from demographic variables personality traits psychiatric diagnoses and neurobiological factors to the social and cultural context Student friendly features include text boxes that dive deeply into specific issues instructive figures and tables thought provoking clinical cases and engaging examples from literature and popular culture The text reviews medical and psychosocial treatment and prevention approaches discusses ways to help those bereaved by suicide and considers issues of professional liability Movies on TV, 1984-1985 Steven H.
