Spanish Cosmetology State Board Practice Exam

Steven Provenzano, CPRW/CEIP

Spanish Cosmetology State Board Practice Exam:

Trafficked Children and Youth in the United States Elzbieta M. Gozdzia,2016-05-10 Trafficked children are portrayed by the media and even by child welfare specialists as hapless victims who are forced to migrate from a poor country to the United States where they serve as sex slaves But as Elzbieta M Gozdzia reveals in Trafficked Children in the United States the picture is far more complex Basing her observations on research with 140 children most of them girls from countries all over the globe Gozdzia debunks many myths and uncovers the realities of the captivity rescue and rehabilitation of trafficked children She shows for instance that none of the girls and boys portrayed in this book were kidnapped or physically forced to accompany their traffickers In many instances parents or smugglers paid by family members brought the girls to the U S Without exception the girls and boys in this study believed they were coming to the States to find employment and in some cases educational opportunities Following them from the time they were trafficked to their years as young adults Gozdzia gives the children a voice so they can offer their own perspective on rebuilding their lives getting jobs learning English developing friendships and finding love Gozdzia looks too at how the children s perspectives compare to the ideas of child welfare programs noting that the children focus on survival techniques while the institutions focus not helpfully on vulnerability and pathology Gozdzia concludes that the services provided by institutions are in effect a one size fits all trauma based model one that ignores the diversity of experience among trafficked children Breaking new ground Trafficked Children in the United States offers a fresh take on what matters most to these young people as they rebuild their lives in America
