Fyodor Dostoyevsky (1821-1881) was a Russian novelist, short story writer, essayist, journalist, and philosopher. His literary works explore human psychology in the troubled political, social, and spiritual atmosphere of 19th-century Russia. Many of his works contain a strong emphasis on Christianity and its message of absolute love, forgiveness, and charity, explored within the realm of the individual confronted with all of life's hardships and beauty. His major works include Crime and Punishment (1866), The Idiot (1869), Demons (1872), and The Brothers Karamazov (1880). Many literary critics rate him as one of the greatest and most prominent psychologists in world literature. His novella Notes from Underground is considered to be one of the first works of existentialist literature.

Ancestral Voices, Healing Narratives Kristina S. Gibby, 2023-12-06 Ancestral Voices Healing Narratives Female Ghosts in Contemporary US and Caribbean Fiction examines four novels by Erna Brodber Zo Vald's Sandra Cisneros and Maryse Condé In this unique comparative analysis Kristina S Gibby explores the significance of female ghosts specifically maternal figures who haunt female narrators inspiring them to transcribe the dead's obfuscated histories and recover their family memory The author argues that these female ghosts subvert historiographic power structures through a matrilineal succession of knowledge via oral traditions of storytelling inevitably broadening historical consciousness and asserting the value of fiction in the face of historical rupture Gibby contends that in form and content these novels disrupt patriarchal and Western expectations of time and epistemology They favor cyclical temporality highlighted by the spirits' uncanny return which underscores relational understanding and challenges the exclusive and limiting constraints of linear time This book makes important contributions to inter American literary criticism with its narrow focus on female authors who confront the horrors of history through maternal spirits

Nationalism and the Formation of Caribbean Literature L. Rosenberg, 2016-04-30 This book tells the story of how intellectuals in the English speaking Caribbean first created a distinctly Caribbean and national literature As traditionally told this story begins in the 1950s with the arrival and triumph of V S Naipaul George Lamming and their peers in the London literary scene However Afro Caribbeans were writing literature already in the 1840s as part of larger movements for political rights economic opportunity and social status Rosenberg offers a history of this first one hundred years of anglophone Caribbean literature and a critique of Caribbean literary studies that explains its neglect A historically contextualized study of both canonical and noncanonical writers this book makes the case that the few well known Caribbean writers from this earlier period Claude McKay Jean Rhys and C L R James participated in a larger Caribbean literary movement that directly contributed to the rise of nationalism in the region This movement reveals the prominence of Indian and other immigrant groups of feminism and of homosexuality in the formation of national literatures
