New Answers to Old Questions Aaron Connelly,Shona Loong,2024-06-26 Outside Myanmar the 2021 coup d tat has often been portrayed as the end of a hopeful period for the country In this Adelphi book however Aaron Connelly and Shona Loong argue that the Aung San Suu Kyi government that preceded it was a false dawn unlikely to fulfil the international community s aspirations for a stable peaceful and strong Myanmar Instead the movement opposing the 2021 coup holds much greater promise despite the bloody conflict that dominates the news today

Safe Migration and the Politics of Brokered Safety in Southeast Asia Sverre Molland,2021-07-19 The book investigates how the United Nations governments and aid agencies mobilise and instrumentalise migration policies and programmes through a discourse of safe migration Since the early 2000s numerous non governmental organizations NGOs UN agencies and governments have warmed to the concept of safe migration often within a context of anti trafficking interventions Yet both the policy enthusiasm for safety as well as how safe migration comes into being through policies and programs remain unexplored Based on seven years of ethnographic fieldwork in the Mekong region this is the first book that traces the emergence of safe migration why certain aid actors gravitate towards the concept as well as how safe migration policies and programmes unfold through aid agencies and government bodies The book argues that safe migration is best understood as brokered safety Although safe migration policy interventions attempt to formalize pre emptive and protective measures to enhance labour migrants well being the book shows through vivid ethnographic details how formal migration assistance in itself depends on and produces informal asnd mediated practices The book offers unprecedented insights into what safe migration policies look like in practice It is an innovate contribution to contemporary theorizing of contemporary forms of migration governance and will be of interest to sociologists anthropologists political scientists and human geographers working within the fields of Migration studies Development Studies as well as Southeast Asian and Global Studies The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com/books/e/9781003185734> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 4.0 license

Routledge Handbook of Southeast Asian Economics Ian Coxhead,2014-12-17 The Routledge Handbook of Southeast Asian Economics offers new insights into the rapidly developing economies of Southeast Asia. Despite widespread initial deprivation, Southeast Asia has achieved and sustained a remarkable rate of growth in the course of which tens of millions have successfully escaped severe poverty. Though the economies of the region vary in many dimensions, integration into the wider East Asian network of production and trade is a notable common feature, one that continues a centuries-long history of engagement with global trade. A second striking feature is the pace and extent of transformation in the structure of production and in sources of household income in the region, which has undergone remarkably rapid industrialization and urban growth. However, the search for sustained and sustainable growth through and beyond middle income continues to confront pressing economic and policy challenges. This Handbook offers a timely and comprehensive overview of Southeast Asian economic development. Organized according to the logic of chronological and thematic unity, it is structured in these sections: Growth and development over the long term; Food, agriculture, and natural resources; Trade, investment, and industrialization; Population, labor, and human capital; Poverty and political economy; Twenty-first century challenges. This original Handbook, written by experts in their fields, is unique in the breadth and depth of its coverage. Its forward-looking perspective renders it relevant both now and in the future. This advanced-level reference work will be essential reading for students, researchers, and scholars of Asian Studies, Economics, and Southeast Asian studies.
