Beauty Pageant Solicitation Letter

July 23, 2056

Michael Malone

3144 Traction Street,

Spartanburg, SC 29302

Dear Mr. Malone,

As a prominent figure in the beauty industry, we believe your endorsement would be instrumental in the success of our forthcoming event, Miss International Pageant, a beauty pageant geared towards promoting women's empowerment and philanthropy. Our organization is committed to creating a platform that champions not just physical beauty but humanitarian values as well.

Thus, our beauty pageant is aimed at raising funds for the homeless shelter Project. With your indomitable reputation and influence in this industry, your endorsement of our event would greatly boost the credibility and attractiveness of our venture. We are thus inviting you to be part of this noble cause by offering financial support or providing your services that will be highlighted throughout the event.

By sponsoring our event, you will not only bring awareness to your brand/ product among our expected audience of more than 500 pax but you will also be associated with a grand, charitable endeavor universally followed across all demographics. We are grateful for your consideration and look forward to the possibility of your partnership in this event.

We are confident that your association will immensely benefit both our cause and your brand. Please do not hesitate to contact us at [Your Company Email] for any questions or further information. Thank you for considering our request. We eagerly hope for a positive response from you.

Sincerely,

[Your Name]

Despite intense media scrutiny only a small percentage of the American government's most essential information reaches the average person. This withholding of information is dangerous in a democratic society where openness is a cherished value. Here are some samples of the topics included in Who Needs to Know: The history, use and abuse of national security classification; The state of the Freedom of Information Act in the Bush Administration; Examination of the concept of sensitive but unclassified and the proliferation of such markings to shut off access to information; The administration's suppression of government science and scientists and its impact on policy and on government employees; The manipulation of the media for both political and ideological reasons; Suggestions on how to connect and communicate with organizations and your elected officials to effect a positive change in the state of public access to federal government information. We the people need to understand how to interact with our government, engage in public policy decision making and hold the government and those who act on its behalf or under its regulations accountable for sharing information. Dr. McDermott provides historical context on this issue along with expert insights and useful recommendations from her years at the forefront of the battle to protect the public's right to know.
