Traditions And Encounters 3rd Edition Notes:

The Early Muslim Tradition of Dream Interpretation John C. Lamoreaux, 2002-05-02 Reportedly the prophet Muhammad told his followers that after he was gone prophecy would come only through true dreams Based on this and other statements early Muslims created what might be called a theology of dreams Dreams were regarded as an important means used by God to guide the faithful especially after the cessation of Koranic revelation However since these dreams were often symbolic they required interpretation and early Muslims wrote numerous manuals dedicated to deciphering their meaning Utilizing manuscripts preserved in Middle Eastern mosques and libraries this book offers the first comprehensive account of the early Muslim tradition of dream interpretation In addition to describing how and when the tradition developed author John C Lamoreaux discusses the social context in which dream interpretation arose and its role in the intellectual life of the time He demonstrates that early Muslims considered dream interpretation a fully orthodox theological discipline one sanctioned both by the Koran and the example of the prophet Muhammad

The Lord's Distant Vineyard Vincent J. McNally, 2000-08 Dr McNally critically examines well over 150 years of Oblate and general Catholic history in Canada's western most province with special emphasis on the Native people and Euro Canadian settlers It is the first survey history of the Catholic Church in British Columbia

Dialogue in Early South Asian Religions Brian Black, Laurie Patton, 2016-03-09 Dialogue between characters is an important feature of South Asian religious literature entire narratives are often presented as a dialogue between two or more individuals or the narrative or discourse is presented as a series of embedded conversations from different times and places Including some of the most established scholars of South Asian religious texts this book examines the use of dialogue in early South Asian texts with an interdisciplinary approach that crosses traditional boundaries between religious traditions The contributors shed new light on the cultural ideas and practices within religious traditions as well as presenting an understanding of a range of dynamics from hostile and competitive to engaged and collaborative This book is the first to explore the literary dimensions of dialogue in South Asian religious sources helping to reframe the study of other literary traditions around the world
