Tax Deductions by Occupation - What Can I Deduct? Jennifer H. Stokes,2004-12-04 OUR MISSION It has taken 6 years to develop Occupational Professional Tax Deductions CheckLists The actual content was not the difficult part The difficult task was how to design an easy to read tax guide Every tax season for the past 25 years clients call me with the same questions What can I deduct I changed jobs so what can I deduct now What papers do I need to bring you I decided to prepare these CheckLists that would enable my clients to 1 always have a list of Occupational Professional specific deductions and 2 avoid multiple trips to my office As a courtesy to new clients we review their prior 3 years tax returns Often there were tax deductions that they were legally entitled to deduct but the deductions were not taken by the person who prepared the last 3 years of tax returns Lack of knowledge regarding a taxpayers specific Occupation Profession results in missed deductions Ultimately I decided these CheckLists would be beneficial to all taxpayers and Tax Professionals These CheckLists are designed as an easy to use guide to maximize tax refunds in the preparation of income tax returns There are over 100 Occupational and Professional Tax Deductions CheckLists and listed next to each deduction are the documents required by IRS to substantiate the legal deduction IRS is increasing the frequency of tax audits this book will prepare you for a problem free successful IRS tax audit Major problems solved by our CheckLists are 1 No extensive or comprehensive reading is required Designed as a user friendly guide to legally maximize income tax refunds whether prepared by a Tax Professional or the taxpayer 2 Know Occupation Profession specific deductions IRS publications and other tax preparation guides books discuss employee and business deductions in general terms instead of in Occupation Profession specific terms 3 Faster review preparation time Tax Professionals may not take or have the time or opportunity to research every Occupation or Profession that exist Taxpayers and Tax Professionals will have easy quick access to over 100 Occupational Professional specific deductions For the Tax Professionals they will immediately know what Occupation Profession specific questions to ask therefore saving time during the interview process with clients when preparing tax returns 4 At a glance know how to document your deductions for a successful IRS audit This will enable taxpayers and Tax Professionals to know not only what specific expenses are deductible but also how to document the deductions 5 Avoid multiple trips to the Tax Professional There is a Tax Preparation Check List to assist the taxpayer in organizing their information to avoid multiple trips to their Tax Professional This list will assist the Tax Professional to expediently inform their new current clients prior to their appointment what documents they will need to bring Jennifer H Stokes Licensed CPA     J.K.
