Study Guide John Paul Bischoff, 1996 Student Study Guide to The Asian World, 600-1500 Roger Des Forges, John Major, 2005-10 The Christian doctrine of heaven has been a moral source of enormous power in western culture It has provided a striking account of the ultimate good in life and has for two millennia animated the hope that our lives can be fully meaningful Recently however the doctrine of heaven has lost much of its grip on the western imagination and has become a vague and largely ignored part of the Christian creed Not only have our hopes been redefined as a result but our very identity as human beings has been altered In this book Jerry L Walls argues that the doctrine of heaven is ripe for serious reconsideration He contends not only that the orthodox view of heaven can be defended from objections commonly raised against it but also that heaven is a powerful resource for addressing persistent philosophical problems not the least of which concern the ground of morality and the meaning of life Walls shows how heaven is integrally related to central Christian doctrines particularly those concerning salvation and tackles the difficult problem of why faith in Christ is necessary to save us from our sins In addition heaven is shown to illumine thorny problems of personal identity and to be an essential component of a satisfactory theodicy Walls goes on to examine data from near death experiences from the standpoint of some important recent work in epistemology and argues that they offer positive evidence for heaven He concludes that we profoundly need to recover the hope of heaven in order to recover our very humanity Study Guide

Eight studies examine key features of Chinese visual and material cultures ranging from tomb design metalware ceramic pillows and bronze mirrors to printed illustrations calligraphic rubbings colophons and paintings on Buddhist landscape and narrative themes Questions addressed include how artists and artisans made their works the ways both popular literature and market forces could shape ways of looking and how practices and imagery spread across regions The authors connect visual materials to funeral and religious practices drama poetry literati life travel and trade showing ways visual images and practices reflected adapted to and reproduced the culture and society around them Readers will gain a stronger appreciation of the richness of the visual and material cultures of Middle Period China The Praxis Series Middle School Social Studies Study Guide (ebook) Educational Testing Service,2009-02-20 Performing Filial Piety in Northern Song China Cong Ellen Zhang,2020-09-30 Educated men in Song dynasty China 960 1279 traveled frequently in search of scholarly and bureaucratic success These extensive periods of physical mobility took them away from their families homes and native places for long periods of time preventing them from fulfilling their most sacred domestic duty filial piety to their parents In this deeply grounded work Cong Ellen Zhang locates the tension between worldly ambition and family duty at the heart of elite social and cultural life Drawing on more than two thousand funerary biographies and other official and private writing Zhang argues that the predicament in which Song literati found themselves diminished neither the importance of filial piety nor the appeal of participating in examinations and government service On the contrary the Northern Song witnessed unprecedented literati activity and state involvement in the bolstering of ancient forms of filial performances and the promotion of new ones The result was the triumph of a new filial ideal luyang By labeling highly coveted honors and privileges attainable solely through scholarly and official accomplishments as the most celebrated filial acts the luyang rhetoric elevated office holding men to be the most filial of sons Consequently the proper performance of filiality became essential to scholar official identity and self representation Zhang convincingly demonstrates that this reconfiguration of elite male filiality transformed filial piety into a status and gender based virtue a change that had wide implications for elite family life and relationships in the Northern Song The separation of elite men from their parents and homes also made the idea of native place increasingly fluid This development in turn generated an interest in family preservation as filial performance Individually initiated kinship and native place based projects flourished and coalesced with the moral and cultural visions of leading scholar intellectuals providing the social and familial foundations for the ascendancy of Neo Confucianism as well as new cultural norms that transformed Chinese society in the Song and beyond World Studies: Medieval Times to Today Heidi Hayes

Lusardi, Rosemarie Kent, 2007 Animals and Plants in Chinese Religions and Science Huaiyu Chen, 2023-03-14 This book is a unique transdisciplinary study on animals and plants in medieval Chinese religions and science especially in such a critical era of environmental crisis today In recent years environment historians have written intensively on China yet the study of animals and plants in medieval China was less developed not much about the role of religions more precisely This book aims to bridge the gaps between religious studies and environmental studies between the history of science and religious studies and between animal studies and plant studies It also deals with folklores and other literary sources for examining the changing images of animals in the psychological and imaginative experience which are often overlooked in the conventional scholarship This book addresses big issues such as how religious agents responded to the challenges about animals and plants as material culture in the mundane world and how the religious writers developed their different discourse about animals and plants from the state ideology and how the spiritual world and natural world mutually enriched each other in the medieval world of China G.K.
