

A collection of Viper car alarm components is displayed on a white background. At the top center is a black rectangular control module with a circular speaker grille on its top surface and a multi-pin connector on its side. To the left of the module are three black remote controls, each with two buttons and a keychain. Below the remotes is a black push-button transmitter. To the right of the module is a large black cylindrical siren with a multi-colored wire harness (red, black, and white) extending from its base. At the bottom of the image are two coiled cables: a blue one on the left and a black one on the right.
