Look, Listen, Learn, LEAD Jeffery Smith, Kate Wolfe Maxlow, John

Caggianno, Karen L. Sanzo, 2020-10-01 Look Listen Learn LEAD A District Wide Systems Approach to Teaching and Learning in PreK 12 lays out the transformational journey of Hampton City Schools HCS an urban school division of 30 schools in southeastern Virginia Our school district faces numerous challenges such as 62% of students receiving free and reduced price lunch and 14% of students holding an IEP and in 2015 2016 Hampton City Schools state accreditation rate was approximately half the statewide rate and on a downward trend In only three years that was turned around and HCS exceeded the statewide accreditation rate a more than 100% improvement with 100% of our schools accredited without conditions We attribute this in large part to our dedicated educators and their implementation of district wide systems for curriculum instruction checking for student understanding climate and culture The goal of this book is to break down the process of what it takes to bring about large scale educational change that is sustainable We describe a process for developing a strong mission and vision to undergird the work around a variety of district wide systems This book provides insights into how to improve climate and culture create a guaranteed and viable written curriculum establish a process for evaluating its implementation and create a balanced assessment framework to measure student success Complete with example templates action plans and lessons learned this book is a true example of theory into practice to bring about sustained improvement for all learners

Schoolwide Action Research for Professional Learning Communities Karl

H. Clauset, Dale W. Lick, Carlene U. Murphy, 2008-05-15 Clearly shows the success that can occur when a staff learns together I highly recommend this book to aspiring and beginning principals as well as those with years of experience Paul Young Executive Director West After School Center Former President National Association of Elementary School Principals Foster schoolwide professional learning through a collaborative action research model Action research is a popular method for individual educators to examine their practices and grow in their profession In this how to guide readers will learn how Whole Faculty Study Groups WFSGs use action research to involve an entire school in advancing staff learning and school performance The WFSG model is a type of professional learning community PLC that catalyzes school change with schoolwide action research as a central component With over 20 years of experience the authors draw from hundreds of examples and case studies to describe how implementing WFSGs can help students teachers administrators and other staff members work collaboratively to improve teacher practice and student learning The authors empirical data and comprehensive approach help deepen educators understanding of how to use meaningful action research to strengthen teamwork and realize school reform Additionally readers will learn how The WFSG system compares with other approaches to action research The schoolwide action research process can be applied in a wide variety of school reform efforts Study groups can move from discussion to action Principals and district leaders can support schoolwide action research Discover the ways WFSGs can enhance student learning and result in real school improvement in this highly relevant must have guide

Culture in School Learning Etta R. Hollins, 2015-06-05 Challenging educators to better understand themselves and their students this text presents a powerful process for developing a teaching perspective that embraces the centrality of culture in school learning The six part process covers examining culture personalizing culture inquiring about students cultures and communities applying knowledge about culture to teaching formulating theory or a conceptual framework linking culture and school learning and transforming professional practice to better meet the needs of students from different cultural and experiential backgrounds All aspects of the process are interrelated and interdependent Two basic procedures employed in this process are presented constructing an operational definition of culture that reveals its deep meaning in cognition and learning and applying the reflective interpretive inquiry RIQ approach to making linkages between students cultural and experiential backgrounds and classroom instruction Pedagogical features in each chapter include Focus Questions Chapter Summaries Suggested Learning Experiences Critical Reading lists A Companion Website new for the Third Edition www.routledge.com/cw/Hollins provides additional student resources Resources in Education, 1997

Designing Instruction Judith K. March, Karen H. Peters, 2008 A fresh new approach that strengthens the need for teaching with creative thinking strategies for administrative leadership teams Few textbooks have such detailed examples combined with the background study of best practices The authors have great credibility experience resources and abundant research to support their proposal A very well written text offering ample review of the research Sara E Spruce Professor of Education Olivet Nazarene University Use this research based instructional model to meet students achievement goals As the achievement gap between advantaged and disadvantaged students gets wider teachers and administrators need a proven process to help all students meet the requirements of NCLB This practitioner friendly guidebook provides a step by step approach to a complete standards based curriculum and the integration of best practices into the delivery and assessment of instruction in every classroom The authors present three capacity building features of the design process 1 training for building leadership teams to help teachers plan and lead the reform process 2 stewardship training to assist district administrators and principals in supporting and sustaining the implemented reforms and 3 a collaborative observation process to help teachers work together and in partnership with principals to monitor and improve classroom instruction Offering an education model that has been field tested with more than 50 school districts in the U S and Canada this book shows school leaders how to maximize collaborative observation and other team leadership processes to integrate reforms into a school s existing culture Educators will learn ways to Integrate instructional design with successful instructional reform Strengthen the learning culture through standards Develop effective performance indicators Apply curriculum mapping to instructional design Designing Instruction supports teachers and administrators working together to raise student achievement by using proven instructional design and best practices Handbook of Research on Teaching Literacy Through the Communicative and Visual Arts James Flood, Shirley Brice Heath, Diane Lapp, 2011 The Handbook of Research on Teaching Literacy Through the Communicative and Visual Arts a comprehensive overview of research on this
