Chronicles Ross W. Nielsen,2013-03-23 Some people think I didn't have a childhood as they think I was born on a cold and wet Saturday morning at the age of 23 in the front bar of The Lord Forrest Hotel I did in fact have a childhood but it was spent on a wheat farm but I hated dirt and country music so as soon I was old enough I left the farm I ended up in a country city doing a trade motor mechanic for four years After I had my trade papers in my hand I was out of there and down to the big smoke a city of millions of people I owe that city a lot as it turned me from a country youth into a man I discovered many things including motorcycles race cars the ocean sailing and diving and also bookshops I hated school with a passion but I am thankful to my teachers who taught me how to read The bookshops in that big city were amazing every Saturday morning would see me on a bus heading into the city and I would comb the bookshops Those bookshops were a turning point in my life that put me on a very different road to the farm boy I was supposed to be From there I wandered around the country and finally landed a job in South America working for an American company South America it's people and the crazy guys I worked with was another turning point in my life In my travels I noticed people seemed to live by a script a script for life Some poor souls had been given a bad script but they still lived by it I worked out who gave them these scripts good or bad I discovered one's life script is vital in how we live our lives One can rewrite one's script but your belief system will try to stop you from changing your script Firstly you have to learn how to overcome your belief system and then rewrite your script

Motorcycle Setup Guide Mark Thompson, Official Gazette of the United States Patent Office United States. Patent Office,1951 I Can Hold My Own Edward A. Nowatzki,2013-03-27 I Can Hold My Own is a true story about what it was like growing up in New York City in the 1940s through the eyes of a first generation American the son of Polish immigrants As one might expect the lifestyle and day to day activities of a youngster growing up in an urban environment were a lot different from those of a similarly aged youngster growing up on a farm in the Midwest Added to the demographic differences in Dr Nowatzki's case there were also differences from being a first generation American caught in transition between the culture of his parents native Poland and that of twentieth century America Dr Nowatzki describes his experiences in a way that illustrates these differences from many perspectives ranging from his attending a Catholic parochial school and playing sports on the playgrounds of New York to his awareness of historical events such as World War

II The story comes from a period in American history when life was relatively simple and the culture was family oriented and deeply rooted in traditional American values based on loyalty to God and country Unlike today there were no distractions from television the Internet computer games and social networks so youngsters had to provide their own means for leisure time activities Some of those activities are described from Dr Nowatzkis perspective as a participant I Can Hold My Own will be of interest to anyone growing up in the United States at that time whether on a farm or in a large city like New York The story will also be of interest to any first generation American faced with a similar transition between two different cultures
