Shultz, Alison Cook-Sather, 2001 If educational reform is to succeed it must attend to the perspectives of students those most directly affected by schooling but least often consulted about its efficacy This is the premise of the first book both to feature student perspectives on school and to foreground student voices middle and high school students are the primary authors of the eight chapters collected in this volume aptly titled In Our Own Words Reflecting differences of gender racial and ethnic background and school context the student authors write passionately and eloquently about their experiences of and desires for school Through their explorations of topics as diverse as bilingual education class cutting teacher bias race relations in school what girls need from their education and innovative curricular models these student authors not only counter stereotypes of apathetic teenagers but also clearly identify what hinders and what supports their learning For both the insights offered and the freshness of the students' voices this collection is a must read for anyone who has a stake in making school a place where students can and want to learn The Hidden Treasure of Dutch Buffalo Creek Jackson Badgenoone, 2015 An eight year old boy named James aka the wannabe Cisco Kid nearly lost his life as he searched for precious metal in a bone dry southwest Arizona gulley He retrieved only pyrite before a desert flood swept away his world Over the course of half a century James acquired several additional nicknames They were reflections of his multiple personalities His dad called him Traveler or Trav Some coworkers referred to him as Point Man A few colleagues labeled him Knowledge Navigator or Nav Under the cool shimmering waters of Dutch Buffalo Creek in 2014 A D Trav came upon a rusty bayonet It was buried long ago in the Carolina Piedmont This discovery is no coincidence indeed this bayonet is a symbol of the abundant riches found in the river of history that connects both the past and future The blade reminded Point Man that all that glitters is not gold Nav expanded the search for real treasure beyond the water's edge The blade was a catalyst that drove James to sift through a lifetime of artifacts and bittersweet memories He found riches from the past and caught a glimpse of the future Just as the bayonet glimmered in the depths of the water so does the ongoing work of his family's unseen witnesses the Neverborn They reveal ancient treasures that go far beyond mere gold and silver James is guided into a deeper understanding that he and countless loved ones have been called by name as spoken by the prophet Isaiah I have summoned you by name you are mine When you pass through the waters I will be with you Your search for real treasure begins when you realize that you are called by name You are special in the eyes of your Creator Your spiritual wealth will overcome all of the conflict and competition that troubles the waters in your life Nez Perce National Forest (N.F.),
