Environmental Science and Information Application Technology David Chan, 2015-06-29 Environmental Science and Information Application Technology contains selected papers from the 2014 5th International Conference on Environmental Science and Information Application Technology ESIAT 2014 Hong Kong 7 8 November 2014 The book covers a wide variety of topics Global Environmental Change and Ecosystems Management Graphic and I Afrotropical Streams and Rivers Tatenda Dalu, Frank Masese, 2024-11-09 The Afrotropical Streams and Rivers Structure Ecological Processes and Management is a comprehensive guide that provides assessment of major rivers and tributaries in Africa Unlike other books available the editors present a thorough study of geomorphological hydrological biological and ecological processes incorporating a range of plant and animal communities while considering implications of human communities that depend upon them This book edited by a diverse cohort of researchers and or scholars is intended as an educational and practical guide for graduate students researchers and scientists who focus on the biodiversity conservation and management policy issues of the African river systems Provides a comprehensive introduction to African freshwater rivers their biota and abiotic processes Contains unique case studies on African streams and rivers Organised around an interdisciplinary approach that covers the complex aspects of conservation and management of African river systems on the continent Large Meteorite Impacts and Planetary Evolution VI Wolf Uwe Reimold, Christian Koeberl, 2021-09-23 This volume contains a sizable suite of contributions dealing with regional impact records Australia Sweden impact craters and impactites early Archean impacts and geophysical characteristics of impact structures shock metamorphic investigations post impact hydrothermalism and structural geology and morphometry of impact structures on Earth and Mars Stolen Child - In-Between Adele DeGirolamo, 2015-09-04 This is the second novel that belongs to the Stolen Child Tale This book finds us where book one has left off and takes us into the Realm of the Space In Between the Land of the Selkies and their unusual World where Kashandarhh the Witch s father lives It is here she travels to warn him of the Sling s arrival back into their land and to ask him to help her bring the Ka afrey Covens together to keep the creature away from finding the last two remaining offspring of the Tuatha De Danann Meanwhile Sibrey who has been able to escape the Tracker who was hunting her has been taken into the Kingdom of the Sky People while the Dragon Lords sent to protect her have started to go missing along the edges of their home land This tale also introduces you to the Dark Sidhe Queen who has taken two of the Dragon Lords prisoner down below in her Dark World just as the Dragons themselves start to disappear from the Continent of Water s Deep Forging Solidarity Astrid von Kotze, Shirley Walters, 2017-04-13 Animating this book is a twofold question In what ways are adult and popular educators responding to various harsh economic political cultural and environmental conditions In doing so are they planting seeds of hope for and imaginings of alternative futures which can connect individuals and communities locally and globally to achieve economic ecological and social justice The book illustrates how transformative politics of solidarity often involve actors across vastly different backgrounds Solidarity is therefore a political relationship that is forged through particular struggles situated in place and time across power differentials The authors put popular education to work by describing and analysing their strategies and approaches They do so using accessible language and engaging styles Popular education is a medium for dreaming for imagining other futures It is also essential for countering the wilful spreading of fake news and propagation of ignorance Pedagogies of solidarity are necessary to building connections amongst people at a time when competitive individualism and alienation are rampant Forging solidarity with and amongst communities is a means towards that end and indeed an end in itself Corporate mines and agribusiness poison the water we drink the air we breathe and the food we eat Together with their political proxies they destroy the earth and her peoples too many are killed because of their military economic religious and information wars How do we stand up for ourselves and the earth that nourishes us against this global system Forging Solidarity shares inspiring stories that feed our deep connection and power Pregs Govender Author of Love and Courage A Story of Insubordination Forging Solidarity is a critical and timely collective intervention that ponders prods pokes and plays in the most generative ways In so doing it invites us to continue deepening our engagements with questions of responsibility and justice in relation to education everywhere Richa Nagar author of Muddying the Waters Co authoring Feminisms across Scholarship and Activism This book inspires people to realize that not fighting against socio economic injustices is to side with oppressors Ntombi Nyathi Programme Director of Training for Transformation

Interest Groups, Water Politics and Governance Richard Meissner, 2015-07-08 The book investigates the role interest groups have played over the years to influence the governments of Lesotho and South Africa the World Bank and project implementation authorities in changing some policy aspects of the Lesotho Highlands Water Project LHWP Some of the issues being agitated by the interest groups are the resettlement of villagers where some of the dams for the projects are being constructed The author argues that interest groups and individuals have the ability to influence the above mentioned institutions and to such an extent that water politics and governance is not the domain of state institutions only
