Visual Artists Network Exhibitions 2013-2014 National Performance Network, 2014-10-30
2013 2014 visual artist exhibitions and their residencies from the Visual Artists Network VAN Diversity in Visual Representations of the Past Jo Zalea Matias, Nicola Scheyhing, Doris Gutsmedl-Schumann, 2025-09-26 This volume presents an overview of the diversity or lack thereof in visual representations of the European past that are found in archaeology museums and media While publications discussing gender stereotypes in European archaeological media exist other identities remain underrepresented namely Black Indigenous and People of Color BIPOC those with visible and invisible disabilities and very young and very old This volume offers insight into these gaps in European media and archaeology while also providing alternative explanations for interpreting these often stereotyped identities and methodologies for inclusion The chapters within this volume are divided into four themes Themes cover the development of images of the past and discusses how images are chosen in museums The book identifies who is missing in images of the past with topics on representing individuals with disabilities children in museums the Other in Roman art and Scythians in museums and books and critiques approaches to representation and diversity in media such as in textbooks popular media and children's books Finally the book challenges the lack of diversity and a proliferation of stereotypes in images of the past and asks how do we improve on them and create new ones Overall this book addresses the need for diversity in images both within academic archaeology and with the broader public

Visual Media in Indonesia Edwin Jurriëns, 2017-02-24 In the age of digital communication and global capitalism people's mental social and natural environments are interconnected in complex and often unpredictable ways This book focuses on the visual media one of the key factors in shaping the contemporary ecology of colliding environments Case studies include video artists community media activists television programme makers and literary authors in the fourth most populous country in the world Indonesia The author demonstrates that these actors are part of an international creative and social vanguard that reflect on criticise and rework the multidimensional impact of the visual media in imaginative and innovative ways Their work explores alternative and more sustainable presents and futures for Indonesia and the world This research is urgent and timely as Indonesia has emerged in recent years as one of the world's most vibrant hubs for contemporary art and media experimentation Using an innovative interdisciplinary framework of visual culture analysis that derives from a wide range of academic fields the book will be of interest to academics in the field of Southeast Asian Studies Media Studies Cultural Studies and Art History Anthropology and Sociology

Contemporary Indonesian Art Yvonne Spielmann, 2017-02-28 Indonesian art entered the global contemporary art world of independent curators art fairs and biennales in the 1990s By the mid 2000s Indonesian works were well established on the Asian secondary art market achieving record breaking prices at auction houses in Singapore and Hong Kong This comprehensive overview introduces Indonesian contemporary art in a fresh and stimulating manner demonstrating how contemporary art

breaks from colonial and post colonial power structures and grapples with issues of identity and nation building in Indonesia Across different media in performance and installation it amalgamates ethnic cultural and religious references in its visuals and confidently brings together the traditional batik woodcut dance Javanese shadow puppet theater with the contemporary comics and manga graffiti advertising pop culture Spielmann s Contemporary Indonesian Art surveys the key artists curators institutions and collectors in the local art scene and looks at the significance of Indonesian art in the Asian context Through this book originally published in German Spielmann stakes a claim for the global relevance of Indonesian art Routledge Handbook of Graffiti and Street Art Jeffrey Ian Ross,2016-03-02 The Routledge Handbook of Graffiti and Street Art integrates and reviews current scholarship in the field of graffiti and street art Thirty seven original contributions are organized around four sections History Types and Writers Artists of Graffiti and Street Art Theoretical Explanations of Graffiti and Street Art Causes of Graffiti and Street Art Regional Municipal Variations Differences of Graffiti and Street Art and Effects of Graffiti and Street Art Chapters are written by experts from different countries throughout the world and their expertise spans the fields of American Studies Art Theory Criminology Criminal justice Ethnography Photography Political Science Psychology Sociology and Visual Communication The Handbook will be of interest to researchers instructors advanced students libraries and art gallery and museum curators This book is also accessible to practitioners and policy makers in the fields of criminal justice law enforcement art history museum studies tourism studies and urban studies as well as members of the news media The Handbook includes 70 images a glossary a chronology and the electronic edition will be widely hyperlinked Dissonant Archives Anthony Downey,2015-07-16 The archive is often viewed as a collection of historical documents that records and orders information about people places and events This view nevertheless obscures a crucial point the archive whilst subject to the vagaries of time and history can also determine the future This point has gained urgency in modern day North Africa and the Middle East where the archive has come to the fore as a site of social historical theoretical and political contestation Dissonant Archives is the first book to consider the ways in which contemporary artists from the Middle East and North Africa including Emily Jacir Walid Raad Jananne Al Ani Basel Abbas and Ruanne Abou Rahme Mariam Ghani Zineb Sedira and Akram Zaatari are utilizing and disrupting the function of the archive and in so doing highlighting a systemic perhaps irrevocable crisis in institutional and state ordained archiving across the region In exploring and producing archives be they alternative interrogative or fictional these artists are not simply questioning the authenticity authority or authorship of the archive rather they are unlocking its regenerative radical potential The result provides essential insights into the nexus between art and politics in the contemporary Middle East

Augmented Reality Art Vladimir Geroimenko,2018-02-23 This is the second edition of the first ever book to explore the exciting new field of augmented reality art and its enabling technologies The new edition has been thoroughly revised and updated and contains 5 new chapters As well as investigating augmented reality as a novel artistic medium the book covers cultural social spatial and cognitive facets of augmented reality art Intended as a starting point for exploring this new fascinating area of research and creative practice it will be essential reading not only for artists researchers and technology developers but also for students graduates and undergraduates and all those interested in emerging augmented reality technology and its current and future applications in art

Issues of Contemporary Art and Aesthetics in Chinese

Context Eva Kit Wah Man,2015-08-17 This book discusses how China's transformations in the last century have shaped its arts and its philosophical aesthetics For instance how have political economic and cultural changes shaped its aesthetic developments Further how have its long standing beliefs and traditions clashed with modernizing desires and forces and how have these changes materialized in artistic manifestations In addition to answering these questions this book also brings Chinese philosophical concepts on aesthetics into dialogue with those of the West making an important contribution to the fields of art comparative aesthetics and philosophy

Zhang Hongtu Luchia Meihua Lee,Jerome Silbergeld,2016-02-05

In this book leading art experts art historians and critics review the life career and artistic development of New York based Chinese artist Zhang Hongtu A pioneer in contemporary Chinese art Zhang created the first example of China Pop art and his oeuvre is as diverse intellectually complex and engaging as it is entertaining From painting and sculpture to computer generated works and multimedia projects Zhang's art is equally rich in terms of China's history and its current events containing profound reflections on China's oldest cultural habits and contemporary preoccupations He provides a model of cross cultural interaction designed to make Asian and Western audiences look more closely at each other and at themselves to recognize the beliefs they hold and the unexamined values they adhere to From his early work in China during the Cultural Revolution to his decades as an artist in New York Zhang reflects the complex attitudes of a scholar artist toward modernity as well as toward Asian and Western societies and himself Placing Zhang in the context of his cultural milieu both in China and in the Chinese immigrant artist community in America this volume's contributors examine his adaptations of classic art to reflect a contemporary sensibility his relation to Cubism and Social Realism his collaboration with the celebrated fashion designer Vivienne Tam and his visual critique of China's current environmental crisis Zhang's work will be on display at the Queens Museum in New York City from October 17 2015 to March 6 2016 Contributors Julia F Andrews Alexandra Chang Tom Finkelpearl Michael Fitzgerald Wu Hung Luchia Meihua Lee Morgan Perkins Kui Yi Shen Jerome Silbergeld Eugenie Tsai Thuy Linh Nguyen Tu Lilly Wei Co published by the Queens Museum and Duke University Press
