Na'im Akbar

*Given all of these odds;
given the almost impossible circumstances which we have faced;
given those barriers which would have devastated any other human breed a long time ago—
the simple question is:
Why are we still here anyway?*

Visions for Black Men raises issues which are not only important to black men but to all of us. How do we restore African manhood to those whom our society has not viewed as the chosen people? Discover the startling predictions of the mystical traditions of Ancient Africa—that the descendants of a once-great nation will rise again.

Na'im Akbar has been described by Essence magazine as "one of the world's preeminent African American psychologists and a pioneer in the development of an African-centered approach to modern psychology." His books and articles exploring the personal development of African Americans have led to numerous network television appearances, including "Phil Donahue," "Oprah Winfrey," "Gunsels," and "Tony Brown's Journal." Currently he is a Research Assistant in the Department of Psychology at Florida State University in Tallahassee.

Visions for Black Men Na'im Akbar, 1993 Visions for Black Men Naim Akbar, 1991-08-01 NEW VISIONS FOR BLACK MEN. NA'IM. AKBAR, 2016 Cross-cultural Visions in African American Modernism Yoshinobu Hakutani, 2006 Yoshinobu Hakutani traces the development of African American modernism which initially gathered momentum with Richard Wright's literary manifesto Blueprint for Negro Writing in 1937 Hakutani dissects and discusses the cross cultural influences on the then burgeoning discipline in three stages American dialogues European and African cultural visions and Asian and African American cross cultural visions In writing Black Boy the centerpiece of the Chicago Renaissance Wright was inspired by Theodore Dreiser Because the European and African cultural visions that Wright Ralph Ellison Alice Walker and Toni Morrison acquired were buttressed by the universal humanism that is common to all cultures this ideology is shown to transcend the problems of society Fascinated by Eastern thought and art Wright Walker Sonia Sanchez and James Emanuel wrote highly accomplished poetry and prose Like Ezra Pound Wright was drawn to classic haiku as reflected in the 4 000 haiku he wrote at the end of his life As W B Yeats's symbolism was influenced by his cross cultural visions of noh theatre and Irish folklore so is James Emanuel's jazz haiku energized by his cross cultural rhythms of Japanese poetry and African American music The book demonstrates some of the most visible cultural exchanges in modern and postmodern African American literature Such a study can be extended to other contemporary African American writers whose works also thrive on their cross cultural visions such as Amiri Baraka Ishmael Reed Charles Johnson and haiku poet Lenard Moore Men Educators of Color in U.S. Public Schools and Abroad Ashley N. Woodson, Travis J. Bristol, 2023-12-11 This book reflects the diversity and possibility of critical research in education with an emphasis on the examination of the intersections of social identities for men teachers of color and the relationship between social identity and struggles for political and professional agency The authors address race and race inequality in education and provide a strong theoretical foundation for filling the empirical gap on men teachers of color by engaging in questions such as How do critical considerations of the intersection of race gender and profession inform the future of teacher education What does it mean to be men or of color in the context of the teaching profession in the U S and abroad What are the aims of ethnoracial diversity in the field of education The research included in this edited volume explores topics including but not limited to men teachers of color and their perceived pathways to the profession their perceptions of and partnerships with colleagues of other genders their sexual and gendered identities and performances and how they embrace reject or negotiate the expectations of performing as a role model in classrooms Moreover the chapters provide explicit implications for teachers teacher educators university and PK 12 administrators education activists and or education policymakers In sum this volume charts a new landscape in education research for all men teachers of color The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of the journal Race Ethnicity and Education The Media War on Black Male Youth in Urban

Education Darius Prier, 2017-03-27 News media film and the music industry have become powerful sources of misrepresentation of Black male life in the social imagination of white society The pedagogy of popular culture has important implications for educators and youth advocates who desire to challenge the myths and distortions that ultimately harm youth This volume raises awareness of the media war on Black male youth in popular culture and the impact this image battle has on the discriminatory treatment of the population in urban educational settings Citing the recent controversial deaths of Trayvon Martin and Jordan Davis the portrayal of black males in contemporary films and the locus of hip hop masculinities this volume offers a unique framework for analyzing how contemporary image making practices affect Black male youth in urban education It also offers ethical considerations for educators in their critique consumption and reading of Black male subjectivity in media and provides avenues for practical applications of critical media literacy on the ground

Black Men on Race, Gender, and Sexuality Devon Carbado, 1999-07 A groundbreaking anthology of essays providing commentary on gender and sexuality inclusion in the antiracist movement In late 1995 the Million Man March drew hundreds of thousands of black men to Washington DC and seemed even to skeptics a powerful sign not only of black male solidarity but also of black racial solidarity Yet while generating a sense of community and common purpose the Million Man March with its deliberate exclusion of women and implicit rejection of black gay men also highlighted one of the central faultlines in African American politics the role of gender and sexuality in antiracist agenda In this groundbreaking anthology a companion to the highly successful Critical Race Feminism Devon Carbado changes the terms of the debate over racism gender and sexuality in black America The essays cover such topics as the legal construction of black male identity domestic abuse in the black community the enduring power of black machismo the politics of black male white female relationships racial essentialism the role of black men in black women's quest for racial equality and the heterosexist nature of black political engagement Featuring work by Cornel West Huey Newton Henry Louis Gates Jr A Leon Higginbotham Jr Houston Baker Marlon T Riggs Dwight McBride Michael Awkward Ishmael Reed Derrick Bell and many others Devon Carbado's anthology stakes out new territory in the American racial landscape Critical America A series edited by Richard Delgado and Jean Stephancic

The Psychology of Black Boys and Adolescents Kirkland C. Vaughans, Warren Spielberg, 2014-06-30 Drawing on personal insights and research based knowledge this important work facilitates understanding of the psychological struggles of young African American males and offers ameliorative strategies Despite examples set by successful black men in all walks of life the truth remains that a disproportionate number of black boys and young men underperform at school suffer from PTSD and too often find themselves on a pathway to jail The two volume The Psychology of Black Boys and Adolescents marks the first attempt to catalog the many psychological influences that can stack the deck against black male children and to suggest interventions Bringing together an expansive collection of new and classic research from a wide variety of disciplines this set sheds light on the complex circumstances faced by young black men in the United States Contributions by authors Kirkland Vaughans

Militant Visions Elizabeth Reich, 2016-08-01 Militant Visions examines how from the 1940s to the 1970s the cinematic figure of the black soldier helped change the ways American moviegoers saw black men for the first time presenting African Americans as vital and integrated members of the nation In the process Elizabeth Reich reveals how the image of the proud and powerful African American serviceman was crafted by an unexpected alliance of government propagandists civil rights activists and black filmmakers Contextualizing the figure in a genealogy of black radicalism and internationalism Reich shows the evolving images of black soldiers to be inherently transnational ones shaped by the displacements of diaspora Third World revolutionary philosophy and a legacy of black artistry and performance Offering a nuanced reading of a figure that was simultaneously conservative and radical Reich considers how the cinematic black soldier lent a human face to ongoing debates about racial integration black internationalism and American militarism Militant Visions thus not only presents a new history of how American cinema represented race but also demonstrates how film images helped to make history shaping the progress of the civil rights movement itself

African American Women and Sexuality in the Cinema Norma Manatu, 2014-01-10 The representation of African American women is an important issue in the overall study of how women are portrayed in film and has received serious attention in recent years Traditionally women of color particularly African American women have been at the margins of studies of women s on screen depictions or excluded altogether This work focuses exclusively on the sexual objectification of African American women in film from the 1980s to the early 2000s Critics of the negative sexual imagery have long speculated that control by African American filmmakers would change how African American women are depicted This work examines sixteen films made by males both white and black to see how the imagery might change with the race of the filmmaker Four dimensions are given special attention the diversity of the women s roles and relationships with men the sexual attitudes of the African American female characters their attitudes towards men and their nonverbal and verbal sexual behaviors This work also examines the role culture has played in perpetuating the images how film influences viewers perception of African American women and their sexuality and how the imagery polarizes women by functioning as a regulator of their sexual behaviors based on cultural definitions of the feminine Veiled Visions David Fort

Historical Encyclopedia is a first of its kind reference detailing developments in the growing field of men's studies. This up to date analytical review serves as a marker of how the field has evolved over the last decade especially since the 1993 publication of Anthony Rotundo's American Manhood. This seminal book opened new vistas for exploration and research into American History, society and culture. Weaving the fabric of American history, American Masculinities illustrates how American political leaders have often used the rhetoric of manliness to underscore the presumed moral righteousness and ostensibly protective purposes of their policies. Seeing U.S. history in terms of gender archetypes, readers will gain a richer and deeper understanding of America's democratic political system, domestic and foreign policies, and capitalist economic system as well as the private sphere of the home and domestic life. The contributors to American Masculinities share the assumption that men's lives have been grounded fundamentally in gender, that is, in their awareness of themselves as males. Their approach goes beyond scholarship which traditionally looks at men and women in terms of what they do and how they have influenced a given field or era. Rather, this important work delves into the psychological core of manhood which is shaped not only by biology but also by history, society and culture. Encapsulating the current state of scholarly interpretation within the field of Men's Studies, American Masculinities: A Historical Encyclopedia is designed to help students and scholars advance their studies, develop new questions for research, and stimulate new ways of exploring the history of American life.

A Gift Grows in the Ghetto Jay-Paul Michael Hinds, 2022-10-25. In his classic essay Of Our Spiritual Strivings, W. E. B. Du Bois asks how does it feel to be a problem? This question has become a means of diagnosing the lived experience of Black men, particularly in America's most neglected and feared environment, the ghetto. What is often overlooked, however, is the vital role that spirituality has in remedying the problem. A Gift Grows in the Ghetto examines how not being in relationship with one's gift can lead to feelings of despair, entrapment, and abandonment, all of which contribute to Black men feeling as though they are nothing more than a problem. By utilizing the biblical story of Ishmael's miraculous survival, growth, and giftedness in the wilderness, the book encourages Black men to embrace a life of faith that is dependent on the God who always sees, nurtures, and is in relationship with us and our gifts in the wilderness and the ghetto. US

From Panthers to Promise Keepers Judith Lowder Newton, 2005 From Panthers to Promise Keepers draws on intimate observations of the men and networks who were involved in what some have called Othe menOs movementO and tells us why these networks mattered Focusing on the decades between 1950 and 2000 it argues that while public structural change is necessary for gender equality getting men involved in efforts at social justice may well depend on their making changes with respect to feelings and with respect to their unconscious fears and anxieties as well
