wanting to know more about Irish Cinema The Things I've Seen Lara Marlowe,2013-04-15 Lara Marlowe the Washington correspondent of The Irish Times has witnessed more than her share of history in three decades as a foreign correspondent She has reported with clarity and fearlessness on the main conflicts of our era from the civil war in Lebanon to the break up of Yugoslavia the US invasions of Afghanistan and Iraq and the ongoing Israeli Palestinian conflict She has been outspoken in her criticism of the often cruel and misguided actions of the world s leading powers and invariably seeks out the views of civilians caught up in wars that are not of their making The human cost of conflict and the absurdity of war come through her work time and again In this stunning and moving collection Lara Marlowe has chosen her finest pieces of writing from her years as a foreign correspondent in some of the world s most troubled countries notably Lebanon the Palestinian territories Iraq and Haiti as well as the power centers of Paris and Washington She brings her keen insight to bear on some intractable problems and shares with the reader the terror of living in a war zone There are lighter moments too a wonderful house warming party in Beirut during a lull in artillery bombardments meetings with talented celebrities including Carla Bruni Isabelle Adjani and Marcel Marceau the simple delight of the companionship of cats This is a superb collection from a writer at the height of her powers Historical Dictionary of Irish Cinema Roderick Flynn,Patrick Brereton,2007-07-30 In 1898 documentary footage of a yacht race was shot by Robert A Mitchell making him the first Irishman to shoot a film within Ireland Despite early exposure to the filmmaking process Ireland did not develop a regular film industry until the late 1910s when James Mark Sullivan established the Film Company of Ireland Since that time Ireland has played host to many famous films about the country Man of Aran The Quiet Man The Crying Game My Left Foot and Bloody Sunday as well as others not about the country Braveheart and Saving Private Ryan It has also produced great directors such as Neil Jordan and Jim Sheridan as well as throngs of exceptional actors and actresses Colin Farrel Colm Meaney Cillian Murphy Liam Neeson Maureen O Hara and Peter O Toole The Historical Dictionary of Irish Cinema provides essential facts on the history of Irish cinema through a list of acronyms and abbreviation a chronology an introduction a bibliography and hundreds of cross referenced dictionary entries on the pioneers and current leaders in the industry the actors directors distributors exhibitors schools arts centers the government bodies and some of the legislation they passed and the films Cinema and Ireland Kevin Rockett,Luke Gibbons,John Hill,2014-01-21 This was the first comprehensive study of film production in Ireland from the silent period to the present day and of representations of Ireland and Irishness in native British and American films It remains an authority on the topic The book focuses on Irish history and politics to examine the context and significance of such films as Irish Destiny The Quiet Man Ryan s Daughter Man of Aran Cal The Courier and The Dead Catalog of Copyright Entries, Third Series Library of Congress. Copyright Office,1977 Includes index Beyond Pug's Tour ,2022-06-08 At a time when the world Europe especially is once more threatened by murderous conflicts between groups of people claiming ethnic and national identity as a basis for sovereignty over specific territories it is timely to consider the part that literature has played and is playing in the creation of ethnic and national stereotypes What role do such stereotypes have in literature How are they created From what materials are they constructed What purpose do ethnic and national stereotypes serve Can it ever be a useful one Are they avoidable Can we live without them What can be done about the deleterious effects they may be thought to produce Stereotyping is worldwide is there a tribe race and nation in existence which escapes being stereotyped by its neighbours In what sense are these stereotypes accurate How are these stereotypes reflected in and reinforced by literature Should and can literature do anything about them In Beyond Pugh's Tour National and Ethnic Stereotyping in Theory and Literary Practice literary scholars as well as academics engaged in sociological and psychological research consider these and other questions by examining the work of specific authors and the circumstances in which stereotyping plays such a crucial part Ambiguous Republic Diarmaid Ferriter, 2012-11-01 Hard nosed scholarship and moral passion underpin Diarmaid Ferriter's work Now he turns to the key years of the 70s when after half a century of independence questions were being asked about the old ways of doing things Ambiguous Republic considers the widespread social cultural economic and political upheavals of the decade a decade when Ireland joined the EEC when for the first time a majority of the population lived in urban areas when economic challenges abounded which saw too an increasingly visible feminist moment and institutions including the Church began to be subjected to criticism Diarmaid Ferriter's earlier books have been described as a landmark and an immense contribution making brilliant use of new sources prodigiously gifted and ground breaking All those words apply to this important book based on recently opened archives and unique access to the papers of Jack Lynch and Liam Cosgrave From Gaelic to Romantic, 2023-12-21 The appearance of James Macpherson's Ossian in the 1760s caused an international sensation The discovery of poetic fragments that seemed to have survived in the Highlands of Scotland for some 1500 years gripped the imagination of the reading public who seized eagerly on the newly available texts for glimpses of a lost primitive world That Macpherson's versions of the ancient heroic verse were more creative adaptations of the oral tradition than literal translations of a clearly identifiable original may have exercised contemporary antiquarians and contributed eventually to a decline in the popularity of Ossian Yet for most early readers as for generations of enthusiastic followers what mattered was not the accuracy of the translation but the excitement of encountering the primitive and the mood engendered by the process of reading The essays in this collection represent an attempt by late twentieth century readers to chart the cultural currents that flowed into Macpherson's texts and to examine their peculiar energy Scholars distinguished in the fields of Gaelic German Irish Scottish French English and American literature language history and cultural studies have each contributed to the exploration of Macpherson's achievement with the aim of situating his notoriously elusive texts in a web of diverse contexts Important new research into the traditional Gaelic sources is placed side by side with discussions of the more immediate political impetus of his poetry while studies of the reception of Ossian in Scotland Germany France and England are part of the larger recognition of the cultural significance of Macpherson's work and its importance to issues of fragmentation liminality colonialism national identity sensibility and gender The New Biographical Dictionary of Film David Thomson, 2014-05-06 With more than 100 new entries from Amy Adams Benedict Cumberbatch and Cary Joji Fukunaga to Joaquin Phoenix Mia Wasikowska and Robin Wright and completely updated here from David Thomson The greatest living writer on the movies John Banville New Statesman Our most argumentative and trustworthy historian of the screen Michael Ondaatje is the latest edition of The New Biographical Dictionary of Film which topped Sight Sound's poll of international critics and writers as THE BEST FILM BOOK EVER WRITTEN 3 7 The Complete Index to Literary Sources in Film Alan Goble, 2011-09-08 No detailed description available for The Complete Index to Literary Sources in Film
