

An Unforgettable Experience In My Life

In every individual's life, there comes a point in time when an unforgettable event will occur. Whether it is positive or negative, it may vary on the situation, but it is something that will be remembered forever. In particular, an event I will never forget is the day that my grandfather passed away. I vividly remember the emotions I felt and the thoughts that ran through my mind at that point in time. While this event wasn't positive, it doesn't mean that it is easy to escape one's memory. Time seemed to stop, as I just froze. I will never forget my heart sinking and feeling a thud inside myself, and being so stunned that I couldn't move or speak for a minute straight. My ears rang with my sister's cries, who was only 7 at the time and knew no better than to sob. My mind couldn't even begin to process the news I had just listened to, and I finally asked my mother one question which doesn't make any sense, even to me, saying, "What do you mean? He died?" While I heard the words she was saying and understood them clearly, I didn't want to accept that a man I had known and loved for the time I was a baby still
