My Struggle for Freedom Hans Küng,2005-01-01 Hans Küng is undoubtedly one of the most important theologians of our time but he has always been a controversial figure and as the result of a much publicized clash over papal infallibility had his permission to teach revoked by the Vatican Yet at seventy five he is also something like a senior statesman one of the Group of Eminent Persons convened by the UN Secretary General Kofi Annan and a friend of heads of government like Tony Blair and President Mubarak of Egypt In this fascinating autobiography he gives a frank and outspoken account of the first four decades of his life He tells of his youth in Switzerland and his decision to become a priest his doubts and struggles as he studied in Rome and Paris and his experiences as a professor in Tübingen where he received a chair at the amazingly early age of thirty one Most importantly as one of the last surviving eye witnesses he gives an authentic account of the struggles behind the scenes at the Second Vatican Council in which he took part as a theological expert Here it becomes clear just how major an influence he was to the point of shaping the Council s agenda and drafting speeches for bishops to deliver in plenary sessions With its rich thought and vivid narrative Küng s book paints a moving picture of his personal convictions and his struggle for a Christianity characterized not by the domination of an official church but by Jesus A View of the English Editions, Translations and Illustrations of the Ancient Greek and Latin Authors: With Remarks Lewis William since this is the scholarly treatment to counteract the rabid prophecy pack for which I had been searching I couldn't be happier that this is published You and I see eye to eye on this issue Yours is a true prophetic voice so badly needed in the current prophecy frenzy And when this mania also affects national and international policy the danger takes on larger proportions Professor Paul Maier Stephen Sizer's work on Christian Zionism is the most important and comprehensive on the subject to date and should be read by all students of the Middle East and by Christians concerned about a just resolution to the Palestinian Israeli conflict Christian Zionism raises vital theological and political challenges that must be addressed head on by Christians in the West particularly evangelicals The impact of this terribly misguided movement is increasingly putting Christians in the Middle East at risk and it seems a far cry from the witness and message of Jesus Christ Dr Donald Wagner This study of Christian Zionism based on Stephen Sizer's doctoral thesis is of seminal significance It provides a fascinating survey of the history of Christian Zionism and an in depth analysis of the theology of this highly important and influential movement Rabbi Professor Dan Cohn-Sherbok Cicero, Against Verres, 2.1.53-86 Marcus Tullius Cicero, Ingo Gildenhard, 2011 This volume provides a portion of the original text of Cicero's speech in Latin a detailed commentary study aids and a translation Ingo Gildenhard's commentary will be of particular interest to students of Latin at both high school and undergraduate level It will also be of help to Latin teachers and to anyone interested in Cicero language and rhetoric and the legal culture of Ancient Rome A free online interactive edition is also available A Mirror of Rabbinic Hermeneutics Giuseppe Veltri, 2015-09-14 Rabbinic hermeneutics in ancient Judaism reflects this multifaceted world of the text and of reality seen as a world of reference worth commentary As a mirror it includes this world but perhaps also falsifies reality adapting it to one's own aims and necessities It consists of four parts Part I considered as introduction is the description of the Rabbinic Workshop Officina Rabbinica the rabbinic world where the student plays a role and a reformation of a reformation always takes place the world where the mirror was created and manufactured Part II deals with the historical environment the world of reference of rabbinic Judaism in Palestine and in the Hellenistic Diaspora Reflecting Roman Religion Part III focuses on magic and the sciences as ancient political and empirical activities of influence in the double meaning of receiving and adopting something and of attempt to produce an effect on persons and objects Performing the Craft of Sciences and Magic Part IV addresses the rabbinic concern with texts Reflecting on Languages and Texts as the main area of influence of the rabbinic academy in a space between the texts of the past and the real world of the present
