convenient and practical guide for actors faced with the task of playing Shakespeare's characters. The volume begins with an overview of Elizabethan theatrical conventions including the training of actors. It then looks at the dramatic tradition of personification which Shakespeare's world inherited from the medieval stage. Later chapters give special attention to how language reveals character and to the social and cultural contexts of the Renaissance. Throughout the emphasis is on how to translate Shakespeare's text into action on the stage. While the volume contains much useful information that information is presented to meet the special needs of theater professionals. Shakespeare for One William Shakespeare, 2002. This volume collects virtually all of the monologues for women from Shakespeare's 37 plays. Not only actors but directors and teachers too will find this book a treasure trove of the famous soliloquies plus many unfamiliar gems. Regional Theatre Directory, 1996. Samuel French's Basic Catalogue of Plays Samuel French, Inc, 1997. Speak the Speech! Rhona Silverbush, Sami Plotkin, 2002-09-18. A detailed guide to approaching Shakespearean text. Speak the speech contains everything an actor needs to select and prepare a Shakespeare monologue for classwork auditions or performance. Included herein are over 150 monologues. Each one is placed in context with a brief introduction, is carefully punctuated in the manner that best illustrates its meaning and is painstakingly and thoroughly annotated. Each is also accompanied by commentary that will spark the actor's imagination by exploring how the interrelationship of meter and the choice of words and sounds yields clues to character and performance. And throughout the book sidebars relate historical, topical, technical and other useful and entertaining information relevant to the text. In addition, the authors include an overview of poetic and rhetorical elements, brief synopses of all the plays and a comprehensive index along with other guidelines that will help readers locate the perfect monologue for their needs. Classical Monologues for Women Marina Caldarone, 2006. As an actor at any level from school exam to professional casting, you are likely to be called upon to perform one or more audition pieces, often a classical piece is specified. A great deal will depend on your coming up with something fresh that is suited both to your particular performing skills and to the period of the play you are auditioning for. Which is where this volume of The Good Audition Guides comes in. Drawing on her enormous experience as a theatre director and in drama training, she has sat on the selection board of several leading drama schools. Marina Caldarone has chosen for this volume fifty monologues for female actors selected from classical plays throughout the ages and ranging across all of Western theatre. Each monologue is prefaced with a neat summary of the vital information you need to place the piece in context and to perform it to maximum effect and in your own unique way. The volume also carries a user-friendly introduction on the whole process of auditioning.
