Biopolitics and Structure in Legal Education Luca Siliquini-Cinelli, Thomas Giddens, 2023-06-30 Taking up the study of legal education in distinctly biopolitical terms this book provides a critical and political analysis of structure in the law school. Legal education concerns the complex pathways by which an individual becomes a lawyer making the journey from lay person to expert from student to practitioner. To pose the idea of a biopolitics of legal education is not only to recognise the tensions surrounding this journey but also to recognise that legal education is a key site in which the subject engages and is engaged by a particular structure and here the particular structure of the law school. This book explores that structure by addressing the characteristics of the biopolitical orders engaged in legal education including understanding the lawyer as a commodity unpicking the force relations in legal education examining the ways codes of conduct in higher education impact academic freedom as well as putting the distinctly Western structures of legal learning within a wider context. Assembling original field defining essays by both leading international scholars and emerging researchers it constitutes an indispensable resource in legal education research and scholarship that will appeal to legal academics everywhere.

A Culture of Engagement Cathleen Kaveny, 2016 Religious traditions in the United States are characterized by ongoing tension between assimilation to the broader culture as typified by mainline Protestant churches and defiant rejection of cultural incursions as witnessed by more sectarian movements such as Mormonism and Hassidism. However legal theorist and Catholic theologian Cathleen Kaveny contends there is a third possibility a culture of engagement that accommodates and respects tradition. It also recognizes the need to interact with culture to remain relevant and to offer critiques of social political legal and economic practices. Kaveny suggests that rather than avoid the crisscross of the religious and secular spheres of life we should use this conflict as an opportunity to come together and to encounter challenge contribute to and correct one another. Focusing on five broad areas of interest Law as a Teacher Religious Liberty and Its Limits Conversations about Culture Conversations about Belief and Cases and Controversies Kaveny demonstrates how thoughtful and purposeful engagement can contribute to rich constructive and difficult discussions between moral and cultural traditions. This provocative collection of Kaveny's articles from Commonweal magazine substantially revised and updated from their initial publication provides astonishing insight into a range of hot button issues like abortion assisted suicide government sponsored torture contraception the Ashley Treatment capital punishment and the role of religious faith in a pluralistic society. At turns masterful and inspirational A Culture of Engagement is a welcome reminder of what can be gained when a diversity of experiences and beliefs is brought to bear on American public life.
