Methods of Knowledge Raymond Frank Piper, Paul William Ward, 1929 Wandering Myths Lucy Gaynor Audley-Miller, Beate Dignas, 2018-10-08 In spite of the growing amount of important new work being carried out on uses of myth in particular ancient contexts their appeal and reception beyond the framework of one culture have rarely been the primary object of enquiry in contemporary debate Highlighting the fact that ancient societies were linked by their shared use of mythological narratives Wandering Myths aims to advance our understanding of the mechanisms by which such tales were disseminated cross culturally and to investigate how they gained local resonances In order to assess both wider geographic circulations and to explore specific local features and interpretations a regional approach is adopted with a particular focus on Anatolia the Near East and Italy Contributions are drawn from a range of disciplines and cross a wide chronological span but all are interlinked by their engagement with questions focusing on the factors that guided the processes of reception and steered the facets of local interpretation The Preface and Epilogue evaluate the material in a synoptic way and frame the challenging questions and views expressed in the Introduction Introduction to Human Factors and Ergonomics for Engineers Mark R. Lehto, Steven J. Landry, 2012-10-26 With a practical applied orientation this book presents and integrates in a single source important methods and tools used in the fields of industrial engineering human factors and ergonomics to design and improve jobs tasks and products The author covers such topics as the human system motion analysis predicting human performance simulation in ergonomic design product quality and usability macroergonomics and occupational safety and health Each chapter offers challenging problems and examples to illustrate concepts The new second edition features two new chapters that address human error causation and reduction and human computer interaction It also includes updated figures

Cremation and the Archaeology of Death Jessica Cerezo-Román, Anna Wessman, Howard Williams, 2017-04-14 The fiery transformation of the dead is replete in our popular culture and Western modernity's death ways and yet it is increasingly evident how little this disposal method is understood by archaeologists and students of cognate disciplines in the humanities and social sciences In this regard the archaeological study of cremation has much to offer Cremation is a fascinating and widespread theme and entry point in the exploration of the variability of mortuary practices among past societies Seeking to challenge simplistic narratives of cremation in the past and present the studies in this volume seek to confront and explore the challenges of interpreting the variability of cremation by contending with complex networks of modern allusions and imaginings of cremations past and present and ongoing debates regarding how we identify and interpret cremation in the archaeological record Using a series of original case studies the book investigates the archaeological traces of cremation in a varied selection of prehistoric and historic contexts from the Mesolithic to the present in order to explore cremation from a practice oriented and historically situated perspective

Confronting the Classics Mary Beard, 2013-03-07 Mary Beard is one of the world's best known classicists a brilliant academic with a rare gift for communicating with a wide audience both through her TV presenting and her books In a series of sparkling essays she explores our rich classical heritage from Greek drama to Roman jokes introducing some larger than life characters of classical history such as Alexander the Great Nero and Boudicca She invites you into the places where Greeks and Romans lived and died from the palace at Knossos to Cleopatra's Alexandria and reveals the often hidden world of slaves She takes a fresh look at both scholarly controversies and popular interpretations of the ancient world from The Golden Bough to Asterix The fruit of over thirty years in the world of classical scholarship Confronting the Classics captures the world of antiquity and its modern significance with wit verve and scholarly expertise The Peel Sessions

Ken Garner, 2010-12-15 This is a story of teenage dreams which as any Peel fan knows are hard to beat Between 1967 and 2004 John Peel picked over 2000 bands to come and record over 4000 sessions to be played on his radio show Many were young and had never been in a recording studio before for some it was the start of an illustrious career for others it was the only recognition their musical talent ever got For over 35 years the cream of British musical talent made the journey to the BBC's studio in Maida Vale from Pink Floyd to Pulp the Small Faces to the Smiths And because John Peel was so respected his sessions took on a legendary status they were a rite of passage that every new band wanted to go through Unfettered by commercial pressure the Peel Sessions were a unique British institution an archive of music that reflects one man's passion for finding and encouraging new music Includes a full sessionography listing songs band members and broadcast dates Jarvis Cocker writing about his first Peel Session aged 18 Wayne the drummer was 15 We travelled down to Maida Vale in a van driven by a very strange man we'd contacted via a card pinned to the Virgin record shop noticeboard We'd had to borrow lots of equipment from a band called The Naughtiest Girl Was a Monitor cause we didn't have enough stuff of our own The session was to be produced by Dale Griffin who used to be the drummer in Mott the Hoople I seem to remember that he was wearing cowboy boots I think the crisis point came when Wayne was attempting to get a home made synth drum to work that a friend of his at school had made out of a rubber burglar alarm mat and an old electronic calculator Dale Griffin looked at this 15 year old kid crouching on the floor bashing what looked like a doormat with some wires coming out of it and just put his head in his hands But to his credit the session did get finished and after it everything else started for me Extension Bulletin ,1916 MEDINFO 2017: Precision Healthcare through Informatics Marie-Christine Jaulent,Dongsheng Zhao,2018-01-15 Medical informatics is a field which continues to evolve with developments and improvements in foundational methods applications and technology constantly offering opportunities for supporting the customization of healthcare to individual patients This book presents the proceedings of the 16th World Congress of Medical and Health Informatics MedInfo2017 held in Hangzhou China in August 2017 which also marked the 50th anniversary of the International Medical Informatics Association IMIA The central theme of MedInfo2017 was Precision Healthcare through Informatics and the scientific program was divided into five tracks connected and digital health human data science human organizational and social aspects knowledge management and quality and safety and patient outcomes The 249 accepted papers and 168 posters included here span the breadth and depth of sub disciplines in biomedical and health informatics such as clinical informatics nursing informatics consumer health informatics public health informatics human factors in healthcare bioinformatics translational informatics quality and safety research at the intersection of biomedical and health informatics and precision medicine The book will be of interest to all those who wish to keep pace with advances in the science education and practice of biomedical and health informatics worldwide Farmers' Review ,1903
