Gray M.A.E.D, 2016-12-19 Your knowledge of police ethics or lack thereof determines your experience Every sworn officer knows or at least should know by now that they live in a glass jar Friends relatives neighbors and strangers watch every move that law enforcement officers make both on and off duty The fact is that the public scrutinizes police officers more than most other professions either because theyre cynical or hope to catch them screwing up or because theyre hopeful and are looking for a good example and a strong leader In either case its up to the officer or civil service worker to be above reproach in both his public and private life The major difference between most sworn officers or civil service workers and extremely successful officers or civil workers is the gap between what they know and what they do Both groups have about the same knowledge base Extremely successful officers and civil service works are just better at doing what they should be doing I worked as a special deputy sheriff early in my young life and there were times I lost my temper to the point where I wanted to cross ethical boundaries I wrote this powerful high impact workbook to help fellow officers by educating them in police ethics so that they wont become a victim of poor decision making placed in the limelight of shame and made the poster child for law enforcement ethical dilemmas Using this ethical workbook in your organization will show your employees youre serious about their professional growth and achieving critical ethical goals and objectives This ethics in law enforcement workbook allows you to train entire police departments for less than the cost of traditional public seminars or other training options Give your officers and civil service workers the skills knowledge and confidence they need to meet tough workplace challenges while on patrol or while working in a civil service position This workbook will help them realize their full potential and perform at their peak and provide them with the tips and techniques they will need to stay calm and productive in any situation People ,2004-10 Fashion Retailing Dimitri Koumbis,2020-08-06 Throughout modern history retailers have opened their doors to consumers providing them with goods and services that satisfy both rational and emotional needs They do this by evoking a customer s sensory system to create memorable experiences that will entice shoppers to visit again and again Starting with a brief overview of the history of retail market research site selection and retail typology are then discussed The differences between on site and off site retailing are distinguished and multi channel approaches that have been used in retail test markets as a means to cost effective growth within the industry are explored with specific reference to how technology has created a new formula within a stagnant model Fashion Retailing further explores back of house functions such as human resources hiring payroll job descriptions and salaries and loss prevention from a management standpoint Front of house functions including merchandising product analysis fixturing fixture sales tracking visual merchandising seasonal displays windows mannequins circulation patterns and the relationship between the merchandising and management teams in driving overall sales and brand image are explored across different retailers Readers will gain a thorough understanding of how the retail model operates in an effort to continually capture the ever changing market as well as an insight into corporate social responsibility CSR and brand sustainability Yes! on Demand Kathy L.
