

PRAYER FOR MENTORING NEW MUSICIANS

Heavenly Father, give me the wisdom and patience to mentor new musicians. It is a joy to see others grow in their musical abilities and their faith. Help me to be a supportive and encouraging mentor, offering guidance and constructive feedback with kindness. Show me how to nurture their talents and help them develop confidence in their abilities. Let my actions and words reflect Your love and patience. Help me to create opportunities for them to learn and to lead, fostering an environment where they feel valued and respected. Guide me in teaching them not just the technical skills, but also the heart of worship. May they see in me an example of dedication, humility, and joy in serving You through music. Thank You for the privilege of helping others grow and for the fresh energy and ideas they bring to our ministry.
Amen.

Aronis, 2003-04-30 It is customary for pastors to urge their congregations to spend time with God in prayer They know that this is of paramount importance the one thing needful But instructions given by pastors usually have to do with prayer for others or prayer for oneself Rarely does one hear instruction on how specifically one can nurture and deepen one's relationship with Jesus This is the challenge that Alex Aronis has taken up in his book Developing Intimacy with God Anchored on the spiritual classic The Spiritual Exercises of St Ignatius Alex has made the necessary adjustments to this sixteenth-century text to maximize its contribution for modern readers Thus the book serves as a personal spiritual guide It can be used for individual or group use and coaches the prayer over an eight-week period through a series of interactive prayer exercises Aronis writes For disciples of Jesus nothing in this world is of greater importance than experiencing intimate communion with Christ It is our greatest privilege to know Jesus personally and to let God love us as we commune with him on a daily basis Developing Intimacy with God will teach you how to do that The Potter's Rib Brian A. Williams, 2005 Just as a potter uses a rib to exert pressure and give shape to clay vessels spinning on a wheel so God has used the practice of mentoring to shape leaders from the times of ancient Israel to the modern church This book provides a theological and historical foundation for the practice inviting the modern supervisor and seminarian to step into the church's rich heritage of mentors and mentees by offering selected vignettes of these relationships in the lives of such influential leaders as Gregory the Great St Augustine John Newton and Dietrich Bonhoeffer By tracing out the spiritual formation of some of the most influential leaders in church history Brian Williams shows how certain patterns of mentoring relationships have been pivotal for the people of God in ages past He then combines the wisdom of the classical discipline of spiritual direction with the tradespractice of apprenticeship to offer us a practical model for mentoring today The book concludes with a number of tools forms and practical suggestions to help shape and guide this demanding but rewarding practice The Potter s Rib will challenge experienced pastors and seminary students alike to take seriously the role of mentoring in becoming the pastors they are called to be Brian A Williams a graduate of Regent College is involved in local ministry in Vancouver British Columbia
