Development in European Higher Education Dr. Marca V.C. Wolfensberger, 2015-02-10 This book examines the much debated question of how to unleash the potential of young people with promising intellectual abilities and motivation It looks at the increasingly important topic of excellence in education and the shift in focus towards the provision of programs to support talented students in higher education It provides a systematic overview of programs for talented students at northern European higher education institutions HEIs Starting in the Netherlands where nearly all HEIs have developed honors programs over the past two decades the book explores three clusters of countries the Benelux the Nordic and the German speaking countries For each of these countries it discusses the local culture towards excellence the structure of the education system and the presence of honors programs In total the book reviews the special talent provisions for nearly four million students at 303 higher education institutions in eleven countries In addition it offers an analysis of the reasons to develop such programs a look into the future of honors education and a practical list of suggestions for further research The Sirius Program assigned Marca Wolfensberger to carry out this research Multidisciplinary Perspectives on Team Sports:

Contextualizing Training and Competition Demands Miguel-Angel Gomez-Ruano, Pierpaolo Sansone, Vincenzo Rago, 2024-12-04 Team sports performance is determined by the complex non linear interaction of several factors including physical and physiological aspects technical tactical constraints mental demands perceptual and emotional aspects and contextual and environmental factors The influence of each of these aspects has been previously investigated However studies have often employed monodimensional perspectives looking at one or only a few different domains concurrently In football and rugby extensive efforts have been produced to contextualize the demands of training and competition based on players characteristics tactical constraints and contextual factors This information facilitates coaches in selecting the most appropriate training and competition strategies based on a number of different factors including the team and the opponents characteristics technical tactical abilities fitness status and considering contextual factors Differently there is a lack of information on contextualized competition demands in other team sports such as basketball handball futsal and volleyball Furthermore the mental demands and psychological and emotional implications of team sports have received little or monodimensional attention limiting the applicability of findings in real life scenarios where a multitude of factors belonging to different disciplines e g physiology psychology training science social sciences need to be taken into account
