Dialogue of Love John Chryssavgis,2014-04-15 In 1964 a little noticed albeit pioneering encounter in the Holy Land between the heads of the Roman Catholic Church and the Orthodox Church spawned numerous contacts and diverse openings between the two sister churches which had not communicated with each other for centuries Fifty years later Pope Francis and Ecumenical Patriarch Bartholomew meet in Jerusalem to commemorate that historical event and celebrate the close relations that have developed through mutual exchanges of formal visits and an official theological dialogue that began in 1980 This book contains three unique chapters The first is a sketch of the behind the scenes challenges and negotiations that accompanied the meeting in 1964 detailing the immediate consequences of the event and setting the tone for the volume The second is an inspirational account interwoven with a scholarly evaluation of the work of the North American Standing Council on Orthodox Catholic relations over the past decades The third chapter presents a recently discovered reflection on the meeting that took place fifty years ago by one of the most important Orthodox theologians of the twentieth century expressing cautious optimism about the future of Christian unity

Romania Redefined in British Travel Narratives Dimitrios Kassis,2025-01-19 Remaining in relative obscurity until the early nineteenth century the Danube Principalities were persistently viewed as a region inhabited by citizens of the Ottoman Empire that epitomised all the negative qualities attached to Eastern Europe having no direct connection to the Greek and Slavic cultures that bordered Wallachia Moldavia and Transylvania Romanians were often subjected to the most severe scrutiny by British travellers who ventured into this part of the Balkan Peninsula In juxtaposition with other Balkan nations such as the Greeks and Serbians whose national struggle was met with the sympathy of European intellectuals the Romanian speaking populations were often demonised persistently ignored or systematically represented on the basis of their state of vassalage to the nearby empires This volume pertains to the representations of Romania in ten British travelogues which approached Romanianness from different angles triggering the image of the decadent Oriental Other the Romanian political context was explored in tune with the interests of the British expansionist agenda and through the lens of the Anglo Saxon racial discourse that occupied a prevalent position in Victorian imagination

Aavang,2011 Based upon her own words this is the story of a unique individual whose deep love for her native country was overshadowed only by her compelling love for freedom Born with a pedigree of royalty reaching back to the Byzantine Empire and riches comparable to the American Rockefeller's this princess seemed destined to a life of pampered luxury and perhaps a noble charity Life however doesn't always follow the script especially someone with Catherine's character In Love With Freedom a sweeping story of one woman's remarkable lifetime of triumph and tragedy in the kaleidoscope of the twentieth century The story begins with a toddler snatched from her mother's bosom by her evil father and hidden for thirteen years in a series of orphanages a pawn in a high stakes game of ransom and revenge The plucky fearless and resourceful child at last escapes and crosses Europe eventually arriving in Romania on the Orient Express and is declared a princess but that is only the beginning of her journey Catherine learns to be a princess wife and mother through World War I the Depression and epidemics Yet it is World War II that is her defining moment Learn how this woman of less than five feet of stature stands up to the despicable Gestapo and the mighty Nazi Armies earns the moniker the Angel of Ploesti from the 1400 American POWs that are torn from the angry skies of Hitler's most heavily protected resource Romania's Catherine's oil fields and then survives the starvation pogroms and death of the Soviet liberation of Eastern Europe What can she do to escape the barbarism What can she do to help her country and all those

Desire for Love Massimo Parlermo,2021-04-12 This is a story about Gianni a man whose mission was to lead a simple lifestyle of finding love and getting married and starting a family He wanted to live out this dream he had since he was in his late teens and he endured many obstacles over the years to get to where he felt he needed to reach his goal This story takes place over many years of his life and covers his many different trials and tribulations while growing up from a shy kid to a confident adult It also covers the reasons he goes through his struggles of finding love and how he tried to lead the simple life and the examples of what he did to maintain the simple lifestyle Sometimes it was a completely innocent encounter but nothing was simple for Gianni because no matter where he went trouble would begin for him Many times his friends would be surprised or shocked by these encounters with women even though they would see it happen in front of their own eyes but the person who was most often surprised was Gianni himself Because he had many different encounters and circumstances with women that were beyond his control the dream that he had envisioned was altered and led him to live a completely opposite lifestyle that he was seeking Not only did he have many different encounters with women in his life but these encounters would also happen to him anywhere he would be And it did not matter what his age was whether he was a teenager or when he was already in his forties Once he started into the opposite lifestyle could he turn back in time to reverse course and accomplish his original mission
