The secret? Cooking ahead. Amanda Hesser and Merrill Stubbs, founders of the online kitchen and home destination Food52, pull off home-cooked dinners with their families with stunning regularity. But they don't cook every night. Starting with flexible base dishes made on the weekend, Amanda and Merrill mix, match and riff to create new dinners, lunches and even desserts throughout the week. Blistered tomatoes are first served as a side, then become sauce for spaghetti with corn. Tuna poached in olive oil on a Sunday gets paired with braised peppers and romesco for a fiery dinner, with spicy mayo for a hearty sandwich and with zucchini and couscous for a pack-and-go salad. Amanda and Merrill's seasonal plans give you everything you need to set yourself up well for the week with grocery lists and cooking timelines. They also share clever tips and tricks for more confident cooking, showing how elements can work across menus and seasons to fit your mood or market and how to be scrappy with whatever's left in the fridge. These building blocks form A New Way to Dinner, the key to smarter, happier cooking that leaves you with endless possibilities for the week ahead.

The Gourmands' Way Justin Spring, 2024-03-26 The French effect on six food and wine writers including Julia Child, M F K Fisher, Alexis Lichine, A J Liebling, Richard Olney and Alice B Toklas. During les trente glorieuses, a thirty year boom period in France between the end of World War II and the 1974 oil crisis, Paris was not only the world's most delicious, stylish and exciting tourist destination; it was also the world capital of gastronomic genius and innovation. The Gourmands' Way explores the lives and writings of six Americans who chronicled the food and wine of the glorious thirty years, paying particular attention to their individual struggles as writers to their life circumstances and ultimately to their particular genius at sharing awareness of French food with mainstream American readers. In doing so, this group biography also tells the story of an era when America adored all things French. The group is comprised of the war correspondent A J Liebling, Alice B Toklas, Gertrude Stein's life partner who reinvented herself at seventy as a cookbook author, M F K Fisher, a sensualist and fabulist storyteller, Julia Child, a television celebrity and cookbook author, Alexis Lichine, an ambitious wine merchant and Richard Olney, a reclusive artist who reluctantly evolved into a brilliant writer on French food and wine. Together, these writer-adventurers initiated an American cultural dialogue on food that has continued to this day. Justin Spring's The Gourmands' Way is the first book ever to look at them as a group and to specifically chronicle their Paris experiences. A literary meal, both luscious and lively, and essential to understanding our vacillating love affair with the French. Kirkus Reviews starred review.
