What Have We Here? Billy Dee Williams,2024-02-13 NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLER A film legend recalls his remarkable life of nearly eight decades a heralded actor who s played the roles he wanted from Brian s Song to Lando in the Star Wars universe unchecked by the racism and typecasting so rife in the mostly all white industry in which he triumphed Effortlessly charming Williams writes with clarity and intimacy revealing the person behind the persona Maya S Cade The New York Times Book Review The story of a legend written by the legend himself Impressive inspiring entertaining and endearing J J Abrams Billy Dee Williams was born in Harlem in 1937 and grew up in a household of love and sophistication As a young boy he made his stage debut working with Lotte Lenya in an Ira Gershwin Kurt Weill production where Williams ended up feeding Lenya her lines He studied painting first at the High School of Music and Art with fellow student Diahann Carroll and then at the National Academy of Fine Art before setting out to pursue acting with Herbert Berghoff Stella Adler and Sidney Poitier His first film role was in The Last Angry Man the great Paul Muni s final film It was Muni who gave Billy the advice that sent him soaring as an actor You can play any character you want to play no matter who you are no matter the way you look or the color of your skin And Williams writes I wanted to be anyone I wanted to be He writes of landing the role of a lifetime co starring alongside James Caan in Brian s Song the made for television movie that was watched by an audience of more than fifty million people Williams says it was the kind of interracial love story America needed And when as the first Black character in the Star Wars universe he became a true pop culture icon playing Lando Calrissian in George Lucas s The Empire Strikes Back What I presented on the screen people didn t expect to see It was a role he reprised in the final film of the original trilogy The Return of the Jedi and in the recent sequel The Rise of Skywalker A legendary actor in his own words on all that has sustained and carried him through a lifetime of dreams and adventure

The Pornography Wars Kelsy Burke,2023-04-25 For readers of Peggy Orenstein and Rebecca Traister an authoritative big think look at pornography in all its facets historical religious and cultural In the 1960s sex researchers Masters and Johnson declared the end of the fake orgasm Nearly two decades later in 1982 evangelical activist Tim LaHaye foretold that the entire pornography industry would soon be driven out of business Neither prediction proved true Instead with the rise of the internet pornography saturates the American conscience more than ever and has reshaped our understanding of sexuality relationships media and even the nature of addiction Dr Kelsy Burke has spent the last five years researching and interviewing internet pornography s opponents and its sympathizers In The Pornography Wars Burke does a deep dive into the long history of pornography in America and then turns her gaze on our present society to examine the ways this industry touches on the most intimate parts of American lives She offers a complete understanding of the major players in the debates around porn s place in society everyone from sex workers activists therapists religious leaders and consumers In doing so she addresses and debunks the myths that surround porn and porn usage while showing how everything from the way we teach children about sex to the legal protections for what can be published is tied up in the deeply complicated battles over pornography Sweeping savvy and deeply researched The Pornography Wars is a necessary and comprehensive new look at pornography and American life

Songs from the Street Karen S. Kendler, 2002 Songs from the Street is about a native New Yorker coming of age in the fifties from age eleven to age twenty The success story of a Jewish girl and her Puerto Rican friends is a combination of circumstance luck and learning from mistakes Karen s story includes coping with a dysfunctional alcoholic family days of excellent schooling contrasted with nights in the street a drug addicted boyfriend a May December romance with a high school teacher and the culture shock encountered in educational and economic border crossing In addition to the story of one person and her friends the narrative provides a universal paradigm of growth anyone can identify with Moreover the book includes a wealth of 1950 s cultural and historical information not typically found in memoirs This includes city tales about life on the rooftops and under the boardwalks Forty second Street before Disney and Alan Freed s rock and roll shows Whether your interest is in New York City the fifties or a teenager coming of age under adverse circumstances the reader will be entertained and educated

Inappropriate Relationships Robin Goodwin, Duncan Cramer, 2005-04-11 In one of the great euphemisms of our time an embattled President Clinton admitted to an inappropriate relationship with his White House intern Monica Lewinsky But what exactly is an inappropriate relationship For that matter what is an appropriate relationship And how can an understanding of the rules of appropriateness help us understand personal relationships in our modern world Contributors to this book discuss the personal boundaries and taboos of modern relationships Together they examine the power struggles that can occur when individuals are involved in inappropriate relationships and the ways individuals in such a relationship may attempt to buffer themselves against sanctions or even embrace this relationship as an agent of social change Representing work from a range of disciplines this collection will appeal to scholars researchers students and professionals working on relationships issues in areas across the social sciences including those working in the fields of social psychology family studies social anthropology cultural studies and communication

Sport, Philosophy, and Good Lives Randolph Feezell, 2013-07-01 There s more to sports than the ethos of competition entertainment and commercialism expressed in popular media and discourse Sport Philosophy and Good Lives discusses sport in the context of several traditional philosophical questions including What is a good human life and how does sport factor into it To whom do we look for ethical guidance What makes human activities or projects meaningful Randolph Feezell examines these questions along with other relevant topics in the philosophy of sport such as the contribution of play to a meaningful life the various reasons for pessimistic views of sport the various claims that celebrated athletes are role models and the seldom questioned view that coaches are in a position to offer advice to athletes on how to live or on leadership skills He also discusses the way that non Western attitudes found in Buddhism Taoism and the Bhagavad Gita might be used to address the vulnerabilities of sports participants Feezell draws from current sports issues popular literature and contemporary sports figures to shed light on the attraction and value of sports and examine the accompanying ethical issues

Thinking Through the Skin Sara Ahmed, Jackie Stacey, 2003-09-02 This exciting collection of work from leading feminist scholars including Elspeth Probyn Penelope Deutscher and Chantal Nadeau engages with and extends the growing feminist literature on lived and imagined embodiment and argues for consideration of the skin as a site where bodies take form already written upon but open to endless re inscription Individual chapters consider such issues as the significance of piercing tattooing and tanning the assault of self harm upon the skin the relation between body painting and the land among the indigenous people of Australia and the cultural economy of fur in Canada Pierced mutilated and marked mortified and glorified scarred by disease and stretched and enveloping the skin of another in pregnancy skin is seen here as both a boundary and a point of connection the place where one touches and is touched by others both the most private of experiences and the most public marker of a raced sexed and national history

Watching Porn Lynsey G, 2017-06-06 Lynsey G is an intrepid explorer boldly going where few reporters have gone with such a critical eye deep inside the real world of commercial sex Tina Horn host of the Why Are People Into That podcast Lynsey G never imagined that she would ever work in porn but at twenty four years old with a degree in English literature and an empty bank account she found herself reviewing the film East Coast ASSault for an adult magazine in New York City One interview later and it was official she was a porn journalist The job was supposed to be temporary just a paycheck until she could spark her legitimate writing career but she loved it and spent nearly a decade describing the nuances of money shots and the effectiveness of sex toys As both a porn consumer and a porn critic she was not quite an insider not quite an outsider but came to know the industry intimately She found it so fascinating that she co founded WHACK Magazine Finally she had a platform to voice her thoughts and observations of the adult film world as well as educate the rest of us about what really goes on behind the scenes Eventually Lynsey was thrust back into the real world but not before realizing that one of the most diverse and nebulous and profitable industries on the planet isn't so quite as different from the rest of the world as she thought Tantalizing eye opening and witty Watching Porn is a provocative book about an average girl's foray into the porn industry and the people who make it what it is both in front of and behind the camera Marvelous The New York Times Book Review Pimps, Wimps, Studs, Thugs and Gentlemen Elwood Watson, 2010-03-22 With essays ranging in topic from the films of Neil LaBute to the sexual politics of Major League Baseball this diverse collection of essays examines the multi faceted media images of contemporary masculinity from a variety of perspectives and academic disciplines The book s first half focuses on the issue of racialized masculinity and its various manifestations with essays covering among other topics the re imagining of Asian American masculinity in Justin Lin s Better Luck Tomorrow and the ever present image of black male buffoonery in the neo minstrel performances of VH1 s Flavor of Love The book s second half explores the issue of contemporary mediated performance and the cultural politics of masculinity with essays focusing on popular media representations of men in a variety of gendered roles from homemakers and househusbands to valorous war heroes and athletic demigods W. E. B. Du Bois, 1868-1919

David Levering Lewis,1993 The author presents a biography of civil rights movement leader W E B Du Bois concentrating on the early and middle years of his long and intense career The Advocate ,2004-08-17 The Advocate is a lesbian gay bisexual transgender LGBT monthly newsmagazine Established in 1967 it is the oldest continuing LGBT publication in the United States Multicolored Memories of a Black Southern Girl Kitty Oliver,2021-12-14 A telling memoir by an exciting new voice Multicolored Memories of a Black Southern Girl explores journalist Kitty Oliver s coming of age as she makes the crossing from an all black to a predominantly white world Born and raised in an all black area of Jacksonville Florida Oliver was one of the first African American freshmen to enter the University of Florida Though she chronicles the strains of her transition from Jim Crow to desegregation this book is much more than a memoir of the turbulent sixties It is an upbeat journal of self discovery in the aftermath of that decade a look at one woman s coming to terms with living an integrated life in America With humor poignancy and lyrical language reminiscent at times of another Florida writer Zora Neale Hurston Oliver shares her passage from the old world to the new an immigrant s journey indicative of the American experience Blending past and present she searches for roots from the Gullah or Geechee culture of South Carolina to the urban streets of northern Florida to the multicultural mix of South Florida s diverse ethnic cultures serving up family stories with large helpings of southern folktalk food and music along the way A Southern Renaissance Richard H.

King,1982-02-04 This perceptive study of a major cultural movement shows how Southern writers of 1930 t0 1955 tried to come to terms with Southern tradition and discusses the resulting body of significant literature fiction poetry memoirs and historical writing Casablanca's Conscience Robert Weldon Whalen,2024-02-06 A new look at a beloved classic film that explores the philosophical dynamics of Casablanca Celebrating its eightieth anniversary this year Casablanca remains one of the world s most enduringly favorite movies It won three Academy Awards for Best Picture Best Director and Best Adapted Screenplay It is still commonly quoted We ll always have Paris and Here s looking at you kid And who can forget You must remember this a kiss is just a kiss Yet no one expected much to come of this little film certainly not its blockbuster stars or even the studio producing it So how did this hastily cranked out 1940s film despite its many limitations become one of the greatest films ever made How is it that year after year decade after decade it continues to appear in the lists of the greatest movies ever produced And why do audiences still weep when Rick and Ilsa part The answer according to Casablanca's Conscience is to paraphrase Rick It's true Much has already been written about the film and the career defining performances of Bogart and Bergman Casablanca is an epic tale of love betrayal and sacrifice set against the backdrop of World War II Yet decades later it continues to capture the imagination of filmgoers In Casablanca's Conscience author Robert Weldon Whalen explains why it still resonates so deeply Applying a new lens to an old classic Whalen focuses on the film's timeless themes Exile Purgatory Irony Love Resistance and Memory He then engages the fictional characters Rick Ilsa and the others against the philosophical and theological discourse of their real contemporaries Hannah Arendt Dietrich Bonhoeffer and Albert Camus The relationships between fictional and historical persons illuminate both the film's era as well as perennial human concerns Both the film and the work of the philosophers explore dimensions of the human experience which while extreme are familiar to everyone It's the themes that resonate with the viewer that have sustained it as an evergreen classic all these years

Crafting Identities, Remapping Nationalities Cécile Coquet-Mokoko, Trevor Harris, 2011-12-08 In the different versions of multiculturalism that have reshaped English speaking societies and political systems identities appear more plastic than in societies which have constructed their national narratives on more stubborn denials of their colonial and patriarchal pasts yet the myth of purity or authenticity and separatist temptations remain very real parameters of identity politics In such contexts crafting an identity for oneself implies expectations of consistency linked not only to the individual need to prove oneself and disprove stereotypes and statistics but also to the broader political goal of disalienating or as it were de Othering oneself and one's community The contributors to this book explore the different ways from the most institutional to the most intimate in which people articulate the politics of memory and the creation of national narratives or communal and personal identities
