Consumer financial literacy education often appears as a helpful commonsense solution to neoliberalism and the individualization of responsibility for economic risk However in Financial Literacy Education Neoliberalism the Consumer and the Citizen this particular literacy is argued to be both ineffective and unjust Socially created poverty unemployment and economic insecurity require more than individual consumer solutions they require collective responses by engaged critical citizens Utilizing concepts from Marx Foucault Bourdieu and Baudrillard this book challenges those who claim that there is no alternative to neoliberal insecurity and reduce education to a consumerist training of entrepreneurial consumer citizens who can continually invest in themselves and the market Through an analysis of consumer fi nancial literacy education s present and historical supports as well as its likely effects this book argues that the choice before us is not fi nancial illiteracy or fi nancial literacy Rather the choice is between subjugation to the requirements of perpetual competition or overcoming alienation insecurity and exploitation aims the critical fi nancial literacy education outlined at the end of this book supports
