Vertigo By Lynd Ward:

Lynd Ward: Prelude to a Million Years, Song Without Words, Vertigo (LOA #211) Lynd Ward, 2017-09-05 The second volume of collected woodcut graphic novels from a brilliant and iconoclastic author who has been compared to Frank Capra and John Steinbeck Jonathan Lethem New York Times bestselling author of The Fortress of Solitude In this the second of two volumes collecting all his woodcut novels The Library of America brings together Lynd Ward's three later books two of them brief the visual equivalent of chamber music the other his longest a symphony in three movements Prelude to a Million Years 1933 is a dark meditation on art inspiration and the disparity between the ideal and the real Song Without Words 1936 a protest against the rise of European fascism asks if ours is a world still fit for the human soul Vertigo 1937 Ward's undisputed masterpiece is an epic novel on the theme of the individual caught in the downward spiral of a sinking American economy Its characters include a young violinist her luckless fiancé and an elderly business magnate who movingly and without ever becoming a political caricature embodies the social forces determining their fate The images reproduced in this volume are taken from prints pulled from the original woodblocks or first generation electrotypes Ward's novels are presented for the first time since the 1930s in the format that the artist intended one image per right hand page and are followed by four essays in which he discusses the technical challenges of his craft Art Spiegelman contributes an introductory essay Reading Pictures that defines Ward's towering achievement in that most demanding of graphic story forms the wordless novel in woodcuts

Lynd Ward's Engraved Woodblocks for Vertigo. Lynd Ward's Wordless Novels, 1929-1937 Grant F. Scott, 2022-05-30 This book offers the first multidisciplinary analysis of the wordless novels of American woodcut artist and illustrator Lynd Ward 1905-1985 who has been enormously influential in the development of the contemporary graphic novel The study examines his six pictorial novels each part of an evolving experiment in a new form of visual narrative that offers a keen intervention in the cultural and sexual politics of the 1930s The novels form a discrete group much like Beethoven's piano sonatas or Keats's great odes in which Ward evolves a unique modernist style cinematic expressionist futurist realist documentary and grapples with significant cultural and political ideas in a moment when the American experiment and capitalism itself hung in the balance In testing the limits of a new narrative form Ward's novels require a versatile critical framework as sensitive to German Expressionism and Weimar cinema as to labor politics and the new energies of proletarian homosexuality

Solomon,2018-09-20 Offers a timely introduction to the intersection of radical politics and American literature in the period of the Great Depression Beyond Art Dominic McIver Lopes,2014-01-30 Dominic McIver Lopes articulates and defends a buck passing theory of art namely that a work of art is nothing but a work in one of the arts Having traced philosophical interest in theories of art to a reaction to certain puzzle cases of avant garde art he argues that none of the theories that have dominated philosophy since the 1960s adequately copes with these works Whereas these theories have reached a dialectical impasse wherein they reiterate and cannot resolve disagreement over the puzzle cases the buck passing theory illuminates the radical provocations of avant garde art In addition when supplemented by a systematic framework for crafting theories of the individual arts the buck passing theory grounds our empirical inquiries into the arts as well as our practices of appreciation and art criticism Lopes seeks to model the diverse strategies employed by humanists and social and behavioural scientists who study the different arts He gives the specificity of each art form a central role in our appreciative endeavours and yet he stresses the continuity of the arts with similar non art activities such as fashion design sports and games cuisine nature appreciation and non literary writing The African American Experience Karen L. T. Ackerman,2004-01-01 The
