Turkish Delight Jan Wolkers, 2017-03-07 The story of a tempestuous love affair and the basis for Paul Verhoeven's Oscar nominated film Wolkers's controversial masterpiece comes alive in a new translation Upon its original publication in 1969 Turkish Delight was a sensation and a scandal Its graphic language and explicit sex scenes had an explosive effect but just as revolutionary was its frank colloquial style The more straightlaced critics condemned the book but readers saw a novel that reflected the way that they spoke thought and felt Turkish Delight opens with a screed a sculptor in his studio raging against the love he lost and describing in gory detail the state of his life since she left him Our narrator alternates between the story of his relationship with Olga its passion and affection but also its obsessiveness and abuse and the dark days that followed as he attempts to recapture what they had when they lived together happy as beasts The two only reunite during Olga's inexorable and tragic decline into cancer the chemo having taken her hair and rotted her teeth she will only eat the soft sweet Turkish Delight that her ex lover brings to her bedside In a new translation by Sam Garrett Herman Koch's The Dinner readers get a sense of Wolkers's revolutionary style and musical prose Turkish Delight's particular balance of naked impulse and profound longing Tin House Books gratefully acknowledges the support of the Dutch Foundation for Literature whose generous subsidy made this new translation possible

Copyright Office, 1955 Movement and Performance in Berlin School Cinema Olivia Landry, 2019-02-08 Through a study of the contemporary German film movement the Berlin School Olivia Landry examines how narrative film has responded to our highly digitalized and mediatized age not with a focus on stasis and realism but by turning back to movement spectacle and performance She argues that a preoccupation with presence liveness and affect all of which are viewed as critical components of live performance can be found in many of the films of the Berlin School Challenging the perception that the Berlin School is a sheer adherent of slow cinema Landry closely analyzes the use of movement dynamism presence and speed in a broad selection of films to show how filmmakers such as Christian Petzold Angela Schanelec Thomas Arslan and Christoph Hochh usler invoke the pulse of the kinesthetic and the tangibly affective

Her analysis draws on an array of film theories from early materialism to body theories phenomenology and contemporary affect theories Arguing that these theories readily and energetically forge a path from film to performance Landry traces a trajectory between the two through which live experience presence spectacle intersubjectivity and the body in motion emerge and powerfully intersect Ultimately Movement and Performance in Berlin School Cinema expands the methodological and disciplinary boundaries of film studies by offering new ways of articulating and understanding movement in cinema
