Texts From Bennett:

Texts from Bennett Mac Lethal, 2013-09-03 A family story for the twenty first century based on the phenomenally popular Texts from Bennett Tumblr blog this epistolary novel chronicles the year that Bennett and the rest of his freeloading family moved into his cousin Mac's household Hardworking Kansas City rapper Mac Lethal has a problem and its name is Bennett His wannabe gangsta cousin is seventeen uses drugs and foul language claims to be 13 percent black and swears he speaks da female language Strangely that last one sort of seems true But as different as they are when Bennett and his mom lose their home Mac's got their backs They're family after all Sure it takes patience to live with the eternally smoked out Bennett and the pill popped Aunt Lily but he can handle it You know who can't Mac's very pretty very WASPy very uptight girlfriend So as his once peaceful household gets completely crazy Mac learns that wanna be Crips are thicker than water that his little cousin flawed irreverent and basically a Saturday morning cartoon gone horribly wrong has become his mentor and that he really has no idea what's up with girls

At Home with Pornography Jane Juffer, 1998-07-01 Twenty five years after the start of the feminist sex wars pornography remains a flashpoint issue with feminists locked in a familiar argument Are women victims or agents In At Home with Pornography Jane Juffer exposes the fruitlessness of this debate and suggests that it has prevented us from realizing women's changing relationship to erotica and porn Over the course of these same twenty five years there has been a proliferation of sexually explicit materials geared toward women made available in increasingly mainstream venues In asking what is the relationship of women to pornography Juffer maintains that we need to stop obsessing over pornography's transgressive aspects and start focusing on the place of porn and erotica in women's everyday lives Where she asks do women routinely find it for how much and how is it circulated and consumed within the home How is this circulation and consumption shaped by the different marketing categories that attempt to distinguish erotica from porn such as women's literary erotica and sexual self help videos for couples At Home with Pornography responds to these questions by viewing women's erotica within the context of governmental regulation that attempts to counterpose a dangerous pornography with the sanctity of the home Juffer explores how women's consumption of erotica and porn for their own pleasure can be empowering while still acting to reinforce conservative ideals She shows how for instance the Victoria's Secret catalog is able to function as a kind of pornography whose circulation is facilitated both by its reliance on Victorian themes of secrecy and privacy and on its appeals to the selfish pleasures of modern career women In her pursuit to understand what women like and how they get it Juffer delves into adult cable channels erotic literary anthologies sex therapy guides cyberporn masturbation and sex toys showing the varying degrees to which these materials have been domesticated for home consumption Representing the next generation of scholarship on pornography At Home with Pornography will transform our understanding of women's everyday sexuality

SELECT POEMS John M. Bennett, 2016 Poetry Visual Poetry A selection from over 40 years of Bennett's work introduced by Ivan Argelles Where to begin writing about this baffling and certainly most avant garde of all poets living and working in the USA today Bennett's reputation is international and his interest in Mesoamerican culture has drawn him frequently to that part of the world where he is a recognized figure. His experimentations over the years have encompassed multiple techniques including visual poetry and his own polyglottery moving in and out of English Spanish Portuguese French or some Mesoamerican language. What may seem aleatory is in fact more intentional and grounded than is first apparent. Bennett has roots in traditional literatures those of Siglo de Oro Spain and of Elizabethan England but he is capable of transducing those literatures metamorphosing them by way of the avant garde movements of the 20th century into something utterly innovative and New such as few contemporary artists have done.

Theories of Consumption John Storey, 2017-01-06 Theories of Consumption explores the concept of consumption from the post disciplinary perspective of cultural studies. John Storey brings together work that up until now has been located in distinct disciplinary spaces including work on reception theory in literary studies and philosophy work on consumer culture in sociology anthropology and history and work on media audiences both ethnographic and theoretical in media studies and sociology. Moving beyond the usual analysis of consumer culture Storey presents a critical assessment of a range of theoretical approaches to the study of consumption. In doing so he provides an authoritative overview of a significant selection of research and analysis that has explored consumption as an object of study. This book provides an ideal introduction to consumption for students of media and cultural studies and will also be useful for students within a number of other disciplines such as sociology history anthropology cultural geography and both literary and visual studies.

Watching with The Simpsons Jonathan Gray, 2012-10-12 Using our favourite Springfield family as a case study Watching with The Simpsons examines the textual and social role of parody in offering critical commentary on other television programs and genres. Jonathan Gray brings together textual theory discussions of television and the public sphere and ideas of parody and comedy. Including primary audience research it focuses on how The Simpsons has been able to talk back to three of television's key genres the sitcom adverts and the news and on how it holds the potential to short circuit these genre's meanings power and effects by provoking reinterpretations and offering more media literate recontextualizations. Examining television and media studies theory the text of The Simpsons and the show's audience Gray attempts to fully situate the show's parody and humour within the lived realities of its audiences. In doing so he further explores the possibilities for popular entertainment television to discuss issues of political and social importance. A must read for any student of media studies.

Intertextuality and the Reading of Roman Poetry Lowell Edmunds, 2003-05-01 How can we explain the process by which a literary text refers to another text? For the past decade and a half intertextuality has been a central concern of scholars and readers of Roman poetry. In Intertextuality and the Reading of Roman Poetry Lowell Edmunds proceeds from such fundamental concepts as author text and reader which he then applies to passages from Vergil Horace Ovid and Catullus. Edmunds combines close readings of poems with analysis of recent theoretical models to argue that allusion has no linguistic or semiotic basis there is nothing in addition to the alluding words that causes the allusion or the reference to be made Intertextuality is a matter of reading Catalog Kansas State Teachers College of Emporia,1914

The Living Church Annual and Clergy-list Quarterly ,1886 Media Culture & Morality Keith Tester,2013-07-23
First published in 1994 The media report terrible events But the academic study of the media is increasingly trivial and lacking in moral seriousness Media Culture and Morality examines how this paradoxical situation could have emerged The author seizes upon the disparity between the enormous production of books in the field and the lack of substantive insights generated He argues that such a mass of self conscious criticism should have provided a moral critique of contemporary culture not the quagmire of theoretical verbiage and threadbare politicizing we are faced with today The book is a disturbing speculation on the fate of moral and cultural values in a media dominated world Targeting Writing Across the Curriculum Merryn Whitfield,2001 Targeting across the curriculum book 3 upper primary Timbre Isabella Van Elferen,2020-11-12 Timbre is among the most important and the most elusive aspects of music Visceral and immediate in its sonic properties yet also considered sublime and ineffable timbre finds itself caught up in metaphors tone color wet acoustics or in Schoenberg s words the illusory stuff of our dreams This multi disciplinary approach to timbre assesses the acoustic corporeal performative and aesthetic dimensions of tone color in Western music practice and philosophy It develops a new theorization of timbre and its crucial role in the epistemology of musical materialism through a vital materialist aesthetics in which conventional binaries and dualisms are superseded by a vibrant continuum As the aesthetic and epistemological questions foregrounded by timbre are not restricted to isolated periods in music history or individual genres but have pervaded Western musical aesthetics since early Modernity the book discusses musical examples taken from both classical and popular music These range in classical music from the Middle Ages through the Baroque the belcanto opera and electronic music to saturated music and in popular music from indie through soul and ballad to dark industrial

Dostoevsky and English Modernism 1900-1930 Peter Kaye,1999-05-06 When Constance Garnett s translations 1910 20 made Dostoevsky s novels accessible in England for the first time they introduced a disruptive and liberating literary force and English novelists had to confront a new model and rival The writers who are the focus of this study Lawrence Woolf Bennett Conrad Forster Galsworthy and James either admired or feared Dostoevsky as a monster who might dissolve all literary and cultural distinctions Though their responses differed greatly these writers were unanimous in their inability to recognize Dostoevsky as a literary artist They viewed him instead as a psychologist a mystic a prophet and in the cases of Lawrence and Conrad a hated rival who compelled creative response This study constructs a map of English modernist novelists misreadings of Dostoevsky and in so doing it illuminates their aesthetic and cultural values and the nature of the modern English novel Host Bibliographic Record for Boundwith Item Barcode 30112077164363 and Others ,1912

Bodies and Disciplines Barbara A. Hanawalt,David Wallace,1996-01-01 The Shakespearean International

Yearbook Tiffany Werth, 2017-05-15 This eighth volume of The Shakespearean International Yearbook presents a special section on European Shakespeares proceeding from the claim that Shakespeare's literary craft was not just native English or British but was filtered and fashioned through a Renaissance awareness that needs to be recognized as European and that has had effects and afterlives across the Continent Guest editors Ton Hoenselaars and Clara Calvo have constructed this section to highlight both how the spread of Shakespeare throughout Europe has brought together the energies of a wide variety of European cultures across several centuries and how the inclusion of Shakespeare in European culture has been not only a European but also a world affair The Shakespearean International Yearbook continues to provide an annual survey of important issues and developments in contemporary Shakespeare studies Contributors to this issue come from the US and the UK Spain Switzerland and South Africa Canada The Netherlands India Portugal Greece France and Hungary In addition to the section on European Shakespeares this volume includes essays on the genre of romance issues of character and other topics

The Mystical Science of the Soul Jessica A. Boon, 2012-12-07 The Mystical Science of the Soul explores the unexamined influence of medieval discourses of science and spirituality on recogimiento the unique Spanish genre of recollection mysticism that served as the driving force behind the principal developments in Golden Age mysticism Building on recent research in medieval optics physiology and memory in relation to the devotional practices of the late Middle Ages Jessica A Boon probes the implications of an embodied soul for the intellectual history of Spanish mysticism Boon proposes a fundamental rereading of the key recogimiento text Subida del Monte Si n 1535 1538 which melds the traditionally distinct spiritual techniques of moral self examination Passion meditation and negative theology into one cognitively adept path towards mystical union She is also the first English language scholar to treat the author of this influential work the Renaissance physician Bernardino de Laredo a pivotal figure in the transition from medieval to early modern spirituality on the Iberian peninsula and a source for Teresa of Avila's mystical language

Education and Celtic Myth Pádraic Frehan, 2012-01-01 The book examines one aspect of the national self image of Ireland as it was transgenerationally transmitted in the Irish National School environment through the medium of the Celtic mythology tales Celtic mythology embodied a unique Irishness without being contentious in the wider social and political spheres and the texts had the capability to impart a national self image a character and ideological model for the young generation to follow and exemplify while concurrently act as a sanctuary in which a unique neutral Irish self past and contemporary self image could be connected to From 1922 onwards a state run National School curriculum was set up to propagate a national ideal through the teaching of the Irish language Irish history and a rekindled awareness of Ireland's unique past The mythology tales were employed to portray this unique past and their inclusion in the textbooks provided a platform for the policies of the inculcation of national pride self respect and self image in the Irish nation official government and Department policy following the Second National Programme Conference and Report in 1926 The aim of this book is an imagological one focusing on what made these tales ideological The study incorporates a triangular approach contextual intertextual and textual It is at the point of intersection between 4 specialisms the historical study of Irish nationalism the history of culture and education in 20th century Ireland imagology and corpus linguistics The conclusions drawn are based upon factual statistical information garnered from the analyses conducted on the corpus and utilise information that is concrete and not hypothetical This volume is of interest for all those working in Irish school literature Irish studies especially cultural intellectual and educational history of Ireland imagology and European studies Culver-Stockton College Academic Catalog Culver-Stockton College,1917 Manual of the Public Schools of Anderson, Ind ,1901
