to start believing and understanding his feelings for what he feels at the deepest reaches of his heart He battles problems of the mind fears and doubts to discover what he doubted was his truth and the truth of so many Through his trials and tribulations he discovers the one thing he had lost for so long his heart On his journey of self discovery he finds out there is another like him only she doesn't realize the journey in which she is partaking It becomes a battle to aid her into coming out of the darkness as he is attempting He realizes a mission If she could only open up to the truth and gather the knowledge he tries to give her She too might really enjoy her purpose and that she actually has purpose and her existence accounts for something in the multitudes of what is abnormal In addition just how important she really is to the others who are a lot like her but do not realize it yet Can Rene find the strength to understand his feelings Will Rene seek to fight for those who really need him Can Rene bring her out of the darkness while he too stands in that darkness Can he find a way to understand its limits walk out of that darkness and be the abnormal thing he knows deep down he is Can he find the strength to admit it and believe it without doubting his heart again After all why are humans humans The reason is simple That is what they want to be known as with their presence on earth However if they have a concept of angels or aliens then they must be aware that they were once part of the angels or aliens somewhere What the supposed humans do not realize is that they were from another planet as well This is something Rene understands or remembers which many do not Unfortunately Impasse of the Angels Stefania Pandolfo, 1997 In Impasse of the Angels Stefania Pandolfo takes the critical engagement of anthropology to its limit by presenting the relationship between observer and observed as one of interacting equals and mutually constituting subjects Narrating debating and imagining real characters take center stage and through their act of speech invent a people rather than stand for it Exploring what it means to be a subject in the historical and poetic imagination of a Moroccan society Impasse of the Angels listens to dissonant and often idiosyncratic voices elaborate the fractures wounds and contradictions of the Maghribi postcolonial present Passionate and lyric ironic and tragic it is a transformative narrative experiment traveling the boundary of ethnography and fiction
