The Strangeness of Truth Damien Ference Ference, 2019-02-06 In an age of loneliness and distraction it can be easy to forget God s presence in our daily lives until we are confronted with everyday miracles like birth death or marriage In his new book The Strangeness of Truth Fr Damian Ference meditates on the way that eternal mysteries such as the Incarnation Resurrection and the Eucharist make themselves felt in the everyday using scenes from his own life to illustrate and animate doctrine Plenty of elaborate theological treatises have been written on the subjects that he addresses but his tone is conversational and direct His insights are designed to awaken and remind his readers of the radical truths that surround them that God holds our world in existence that He became a man and that He sacrificed Himself for us Fr Ferrence s writing is filled with wonder reverence and a keen observational sense using concrete examples and crystal clear observations to illuminate realities often spoken of as murky or abstract The Strangeness of Truth will spark a renewed love and appreciation for the doctrines God has revealed and help you see them with fresh eyes not as they could be but how they really are beautiful strange and timeless
