Tshwane North College Registration For 2016:

Fees Must Fall Susan Booysen, 2016-10-01 This book explores the student discontent a year after the start of the 2015 South African FeesMustFall revolt. FeesMustFall the student revolt that began in October 2015 was an uprising against lack of access to and financial exclusion from higher education in South Africa. More broadly it radically questioned the socio-political dispensation resulting from the 1994 social pact between big business, the ruling elite and the liberation movement. The 2015 revolt links to national and international youth struggles of the recent past and is informed by black consciousness politics and social movements of the international left. Yet its objectives are more complex than those of earlier struggles. The student movement has challenged the hierarchical top down leadership system of university management and its double speak of professing to act in workers and students interests yet entrenching a regressive system for control and governance. University managements while on one level amenable to change have also co-opted students into their ranks to create co-responsibility for the highly bureaucratised university financial aid that stands in the way of their social revolution. This book maps the contours of student discontent a year after the start of the FeesMustFall revolt. Student voices dissect colonialism, improper compromises by the founders of democratic South Africa, feminism, worker rights and meaningful education. In depth assessments by prominent scholars reflect on the complexities of student activism, its impact on national and university governance and offer provocative analyses of the power of the revolt.

Pretoria Student Law Review 2021-15 Pheny Nomasonto Morweši Sekati, 2022-01-01 About the publication I am delighted to present to you the reader the fifteenth edition of the Pretoria Student Law Review (PSLR) with its Special Section on Social Justice and COVID 19. This year's Annual Edition together with the developments made during the year is a testament to the growth, resilience and adaptability of this student-driven initiative, especially during these turbulent times. This year has also been one of reflection and remembrance as we publish this edition in tribute to the late Professor Christof Heyns whose instrumentality in the establishment of the Pretoria University Law Press (PULP) has brought us to where we are today. Fourteen years since its inception and the PSLR still continues to grow and evolve whilst remaining true to its thriving legacy in fostering excellence and innovation through legal writing. This publication's uniqueness is also presented through its diverse contributions all addressing contemporary societal and legal issues under a broad range of legal disciplines. In an era of many continued firsts the PSLR has strived to build on the legacy of its predecessors by expanding on the Journal's visibility and accessibility. The PSLR's digital presence has now grown substantially leading to an increase in quality submissions from institutions across the country. This year the PSLR launched its first independent website and developed an official logo for the Journal and its online platforms. Authors are now able to submit their papers through the Open Journals System platform, track their workflow, manage their submissions and submit at any time outside of the PSLR's official call for submissions. We can firmly submit that we have, in pursuance of being a DHET accredited journal, fulfilled the standards set out by the Department of Higher Education and Training. Many thanks are extended to Makone Maja for developing the website Your patience guidance and geniality are truly appreciated Thank you also to Jakolien Strydom and ClickCreate for your charitable assistance in developing and designing the logo To the authors this year has in many respects been challenging with many of those challenges affecting students directly We appreciate the dedicated efforts put into your submissions and your wholehearted cooperation throughout the entire process Much appreciation is also extended to the reviewers who have selflessly committed to assisting the PSLR during the peer review process To all of the reviewers your input guidance and recommendations are greatly appreciated Pheny Nomasonto Morwesi Sekati Editor in Chief 2020 ICEL 2018 13th International Conference on e-Learning Professor Eunice Ivala, 2018-07-05 Born-Digital Texts in the English Language Classroom Saskia Kersten, Christian Ludwig, 2024-06-11 This book is the first to focus specifically on born digital texts in EFL teaching uniting international and innovative scholarship with practical classroom applications The book develops a theoretically sound framework for curriculum materials and methods design that takes into account the growing ubiquity of born digital texts in the digital age It covers a broad variety of born digital text types including those generated by AI which so far have not been an explicit focus in the context of language teaching while also providing a grounding in current discussions around digital tools in education The chapters cover a wide range of issues from methodological approaches to born digital texts to curriculum syllabus and materials design The book will be a valuable introduction to the subject for trainee and practising teachers as well as teacher educators and students on EFL courses Chapter 7 is free to download as an open access publication under a CC BY licence and is available here <https://zenodo.org/records/11174197> Indigenous knowledge systems and climate change management in Africa Ajayi, O.C.
