Proceedings of the International Conference Theory and Applications in the Knowledge Economy Eduardo Tomé, 2016-07-08 Foreword TAKE 2016 is a dream that came true In about six months a group of friends and colleagues put together in an upcoming and very dynamic university a conference with 9 streams 3 keynotes and 3 special sessions 60 papers presented 6 posters and around 80 participants from 20 countries This is awesome I would like to deeply thank Aveiro University the GOVCOPP research centre the conference committee the keynote speakers the special session convenors the stream leaders the reviewers the authors and the administrative people for all their work and support I want to have two special words one for Blazenka Knezevic without whom the website would not have been possible the other for Gaby Neumann for work in these Proceedings Scientifically TAKE seems to be as important and new and far reaching We don't have shortage of models regarding the knowledge economy but we decisively lack to explore the relation between theory and practice TAKE is a step in exploring that difference We know that Exact sciences find the best answers and social sciences give the best questions J. C. Spender and we also know that Knowledge Management is more preached by scholars than done by practitioners Aino Kianto We assume the first idea and try to overcome the second Hopefully TAKE 2016 will be a great success Thank you for everything Social Media and Networking: Concepts, Methodologies, Tools, and Applications Management Association, Information Resources, 2015-07-31 In the digital era users from around the world are constantly connected over a global network where they have the ability to connect share and collaborate like never before To make the most of this new environment researchers and software developers must understand users needs and expectations Social Media and Networking Concepts Methodologies Tools and Applications explores the burgeoning global community made possible by Web 2 0 technologies and a universal interconnected society With four volumes of chapters related to digital media online engagement and virtual environments this multi volume reference is an essential source for software developers web designers researchers students and IT specialists interested in the growing field of digital media and engagement This four volume reference includes various chapters covering topics related to Web 2 0 e governance social media activism internet privacy digital and virtual communities e business customer relationship management and more

Routledge Handbook of African Theatre and Performance Kene Igweonu, 2024-06-10 The Routledge Handbook of African Theatre and Performance brings together the very latest international research on the performing arts across the continent and the diaspora into one expansive and wide ranging collection The book offers readers a compelling journey through the different ideas people and practices that have shaped African theatre and performance from pre colonial and colonial times right through to the 20th and early 21st centuries Resolutely Pan African and inter national in its coverage the book draws on the expertise of a wide range of Africanist scholars and also showcases the voices of performers and theatre practitioners working on the cutting edge of African theatre and performance practice Contributors aim to answer some of the big questions about the content nature form and context processes practice of theatre whilst also painting a pluralistic and complex picture of the diversity of cultural political and artistic exigencies across the continent Covering a broad range of themes including postcolonialism transnationalism interculturalism Afropolitanism development and the diaspora the handbook concludes by projecting possible future directions for African theatre and performance as we continue to advance into the 21st century and beyond This ground breaking new handbook will be essential reading for students and researchers studying theatre and performance practices across Africa and the diaspora Social Policy in Post-Apartheid South Africa Ndangwa Noyoo, 2019-11-01 This book critically examines the current social policy in post apartheid South Africa and proposes an alternative social policy agenda to create a new development pathway for the country Taking social policy as a vehicle that will facilitate the creation of a new society altogether namely the Good Society the author argues for the adoption of policy that will socially re engineer South Africa The author shows how the policy tools and development interventions which were undertaken by the post apartheid state in driving South Africa s transformation agenda failed to emancipate many individuals families and communities from the cycle of intergenerational poverty and underdevelopment He contends that social policy interventions that foster the social re engineering of South African society must take place to untangle the inherited colonial apartheid social order This book includes comparative analyses on the Global South and Global North to present the ways in which countries such as post Second World War Great Britain and Sweden and post independence Zambia of the 1960s and 1970s were able to use social policy to create new societies altogether or places similar to the Good Society The conceptual and methodological issues that form the basis for this book reside in public policy making and the public good and will be of interest to scholars of social policy social development and South African society
