Verses Against the Darkness Greg Dawes, 2006 Verses Against the Darkness offers a new assessment of Pablo Neruda's poetry by looking at the intersection of his aesthetic method and political radicalism from 1925 to 1954 It challenges the canonical view that Neruda was a gifted verse maker who in 1936 let himself be carried away by the excesses of communist politics Instead by focusing primarily on Tercera residencia 1935-1945 Greg Dawes argues for an uneven yet steady evolution and continuity in Neruda's work politics and morality Dawes relies on historical accounts biographies literary history and criticism and on Neruda's political and aesthetic theory to prove that his poetry became contrary to received critical opinion more sophisticated literarily and politically as he became more radicalized during the Spanish Civil War and World War II and as he developed his dialectical realism or guided spontaneity
